

morphosis". Dana will play the role of the father in adaptation of the famous Czech writer Franz Kafka's phantasmagorical story. The full-length sound film, one of the first to be taken on 16 mm. film, is a pioneer effort in the field of movie-making, and will have its world premier at the University's Hill Auditorium December 10-11.

Produced entirely by a group of students under the sponsorship of the Gothic Film Society, a University organization, the film is under the direction of William J. Hampton of Royal Oak.
