

Christmas Displays Win Awards at Garden Show

The Birmingham branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, Incorporated, held its Fifteenth Annual Christmas Show at the Community House on December 10.

Particularly eye-catching was the scene pictured through the window of home on the "Night Before Christmas," which was the theme of the show.

Decorations were arranged by Mrs. L. A. Hyland, Mrs. H. B. Stillman and Mrs. Kenneth Hardy. Another highlight of the show was the mantel decoration and softly lighted Christmas tree, done by Mrs. James Hogan and Mrs. Edward Hoencie.

Both these displays won special awards.

IN THE CHRISTMAS Silhouette class, blue ribbons were awarded to Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. Nevin Barnes and Mrs. G. P. Cutler. The red ribbon was given to Mrs. Kenneth Duff, and the yellow ribbon to Mrs. Thomas Chester.

Blue ribbons for Christmas arrangements for Father and Mother went to Mrs. A. G. Nancarrow, Mrs. A. J. Holm, Mrs. B. R. M. Donald, and Mrs. R. J. Mason.

IN THE HOLIDAY tables class, which included arrangements for Christmas dinner, buffets, punch bowls or tea tables, blue ribbon winners were Mrs. C. L. Hagerman, Mrs. George Goodwin, Mrs. C. D. Hertzuff and Mrs. Seth Slawson.

Mrs. James Allen and Mrs. Bernard Magruder took red ribbon awards.

Mrs. George Goodwin merited the blue ribbon in the tropical table class.

For their arrangements of Christmas evening snack displays, blue ribbon went to Mrs. A. J. Voss, Mrs. F. M. George Goodwin, Chester, Mrs. Fred Zollen and Mrs. H. D. Andreae were red ribbon winners and the yellow award was taken by Mrs. J. G. Gurney.

MRS. W. A. P. JOHN'S display topped the Christmas at the altar exhibit. Yellow ribbons in this class went to Mrs. George Goodwin and Mrs. Ralph Scheel.

For interpreting the spiritual feeling of Christmas, Mrs. John K. Stevenson and Mrs. W. R. Lane won blue ribbons. Mrs. V. A. P. John was awarded the red ribbon, and Mrs. Aaron Webster won the yellow ribbon.

The blue ribbon for interpreting the joy of winter went to Mrs. Seth B. Slawson.

Blue ribbons in candle displays were awarded to Mrs. Seth Slawson, Mrs. George Goodwin, Mrs. C. R. Obermeyer and Mrs. Aaron Webster.

Other award winners in this class were Mrs. C. D. Hertzuff, Mrs. Thomas Chester, Mrs. C. R. Obermeyer, Mrs. M. B. Lucas, Mrs. Ernest Seasholm and Mrs. Frank Kurtz.

For their Christmas arrangements in favorite corners, Mrs. C. B. Harmon, Mrs. C. R. Obermeyer and Mrs. LeLita Craig received blue ribbons. The red award went to Mrs. James T. Wall, and the yellow to Mrs. P. C. McCain.

MOMS Seek Gifts and Addresses

At eight o'clock Thursday evening, December 20, the Birmingham Moms Club, unit No. 3, will meet with Mrs. Corson for a Christmas party. A cordial invitation is extended to all mothers of men and women in service from this area, as well as to regular members of the organization.

Each guest is asked to bring a gift and wrappings for the children of hospitalized veterans. Gifts may be clothing or toys for children from 3 to 8 years old.

Mrs. Corson will be assisted by Mrs. Stanley. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Leo Flynn, Mrs. Earl Cunningham and Mrs. F. W. Niefenfuhr.

The Moms will also take their annual basket of cookies and candies to the Veterans and Marine Hospitals a few days before Christmas.

Donations of food, cookies, and canned goods will be greatly appreciated. Mrs. Edwin S. Snyder of Colonial Court is hospital chairman.

THE MOMS are asking for the addresses of all service men in order to bring their register in the library up to date. This information is being taken by Mrs. Earl Cunningham of South Bates street.

Christmas cards will be sent to servicemen.
