Christmas Previews

Next Sunday Santa Claus will make Birmingham Country club his headquarters to greet the Small Fry. There will be a Christmas party with gifts, vase, et cetera. Diane and Tommy Joldersma will be on hand with their parents, the Alfred Joldersmas.

Lois Blackwell Smith and her sister, Mrs. Marian Petrock, as luncheon guests last Thursday. Mrs. Boddy and Mrs. Smith were classmates at Henry Ford Hospital Nurses School.

A surprise stork and personal shower honored Virginia Smith last Wednesday with Dolores Doucet as hostess. The guests enjoyed a game of canasta before the party was presented by Myrtle Buhner, Jackie Daniel, Eleanor Larsen, Grace Harold, Ruth Hoover, Shirley Thom, Elaine Smith, Rose Dolbe, Mary Lafoon and Hilda Cushman. Some of the husbands decided they would have a party too, so Ken Smith was host at poker with guests Ernie Buhner, Bob Larsen, Grant Harold and Ed Doucet.

A dinner party with canasta in the evening had Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sharp as hosts last Saturday at their home on Amberst Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Joldersma will entertain their bridge club at pot luck dinner next Saturday. It will be the group's Christmas party with members Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tompkins, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Weston and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Buckminster attending.

This and That
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bird were hosts at a dinner party in honor of their daughter Peggy, who celebrated her birthday last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pallas of Auburn Drive announce the birth of their son Kenneth, who was born on Dec. 7.

Thing of Beauty Is a Joy Forever

And with such smiles and good looks it might be said a thing of joy is a beauty forever. If you've wondered how baby contest winners turn out, take Marilyn Yvonne Miller of Pierre, S. D., who was one year old, top, when she won the title of "America's Most Beautiful Baby" at the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago, 1934. Marilyn, right, now 18, is a singer, pianist and top dancer.

Players Prepare For Traditional Parties Saturday

Saturday, December 15, will be a big day for members of the Village Players and their families. The afternoon will be devoted to the traditional party at the Playhouse for the children of members. Mrs. Robert Wyatt heads the committee which will provide a magician, as well as the guest of honor, Santa Claus (LeRoy Brantford) who will give out gifts. The evening has been selected for the formal dress party for members and their families. A real old-fashioned melodrama, "The Fatal Fogery or Paint Heart Never Won Fair Lady", will be presented under the direction of author Al Riebling, assisted by A. L. Gensung.

MRS. WILLIAM LAMBERT is responsible for the lines, and Mrs. George Dix will provide the prop. Make-up will be under the supervision of Mrs. Paul Averill, with Mrs. George F. Green, Mrs. Carl Bradt and Louise Hoseny arranging the costumes.

Lights will be handled by Paul Averill and Richard Brown, under the eye of stage manager Russell Richardson. William Howell is in charge of the scenery.

The cast includes Mrs. Lloyd Linton, Mrs. Tod Mansfield, Mrs. Chester Hart, Mrs. Elaine Eyrone, Mrs. F. C. Moriarty, Mrs. W. C.

Scott and Gordon Jaynes. Others who will aid in confounding the villain are George Fox, Walter Herdrich, Edward S. Reid and William Lambert.
