

Civics Students Hear Lecture

BY SIDNEY McNARY

Birmingham civics students acquire knowledge not only through books, but by seeing educational movies and hearing lectures on timely subjects.

Last week at a Students from Howard Love's civics classes heard Mrs. Evangeline Kuni, head of the special science department at Bedford high school, who spoke on a youth forum which she attended in New York.

THE TOPIC UNDER discussion at this forum was "Keeping our minds out of Uniform." The young people from high schools and colleges who attended this forum were primarily interested in finding out what can be gained from military service, as far as education or learning a trade is concerned.

The general feeling was that their years of military service should not be just a gap in their lives but a worthwhile experience which would be of value in later life.

Mrs. Kuni related the important points discussed in the forum, leaving her lecture open to questions and discussion from the audience. A movie, "The Road to Peace" was shown last week to all civics classes. This film showed the downfall of the League of Nations, the rise of Hitler in Germany, and the hardships of mass revolution and war.

The students feel that such films are necessary to educate the fortunate people who do not come in contact with war and dictatorship.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

Kindergraten news—The class welcomed a new boy this week when Jimmy Dawson joined the group. They have been busy all week making Christmas decorations for the room. Pupils made bells, trees and Santa Claus.

First and second grade news—Nancy Judd left for Florida and will be gone until June. A new girl in our class is Sandra Riddell.

SECOND AND THIRD GRADES—Bobby and Jimmy Scott's father returns from a trip Friday. We are giving a Christmas play Dec. 21. Dale Koster is a new girl in our room. We are decorating our room for Christmas and have pretty pictures on our windows. Reporter for the week is Royce Beers.

Fourth and fifth grades—Helen Cudini is the reporter. Fourth and fifth grade officers for the week were Susan Wagner, president; Virginia Huntoon, vice president; and George Harris, secretary. A new pupil, Jean Caldwell, entered our class this week. Suzanne Wallace, 10, jumped a horse named Sugar in the Michigan International Horse Show. Pupils have been practicing our

Birmingham Hi-Society

BY CAROL HOGSHEAD

A big evening was enjoyed by every Birmingham student as the dance and various open houses filled the social bill.

Carol Hindley entertained nearly 40 of her friends after the Troy basketball game last Friday night. An open house where everyone had fun just talking, eating, and singing.

Kay McKenzie attended the Phi Kappa Psi pledge formal at the University of Michigan last weekend. Also on the same campus was Carolyn Bryna who was invited to the Delta Sigma Phi pledge formal.

We have been making plans for our part of the school Christmas program. Children are planning to make our Christmas tree a "bird" Christmas tree after they have had our room Christmas party and will decorate it with strings of popcorn, cranberries, suet and various bird seed mixtures.

Girls in Scout Troop 21 plan to make our Christmas tree at the St. Elizabeth Home for the Aged Dec. 12.

THE FOOTBALL DANCE was one of the best ever given at the high school. Everyone agreed that Marbie Ross's band was top of the list.

Juring intermission Martha Brown was elected to the role of "Alice" as the theme of the dance was "Alice in Wonderland." Escorted to the stage by two mansized rabbits, Martha was presented with a crown of carnations. Judging from the fury of applause, everyone was in agreement that Martha really deserved the honor bestowed upon her.

Mary Christmas's home was the destination of approximately 150 students dressed in formals and suits. Before the dance, Mary supplied refreshments and fun for all who attended her open house.
