Builder's Group Schedules Annual Christmas Party
Annual Christmas party of the North Woodward Builders is scheduled Tuesday, Dec. 18, at the Birmingham Golf club, according to Robert Robertson, 1091 Lake Park, vice-president of the North Woodward section, a territorial division of the Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit.
Robertson stated there will be music, entertainment and the reading of the annual Christmas story by Henry F. Felt.

LEGAL NOTICES
John E. Martz, Attorney-at-Law, 727 Peachtree St., Detroit 26, Mich. 48241.
STATE OF MICHIGAN: In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland.
At the Matter of the Estate of George W. Evans, Deceased.
At a session of the Court, held at the Court House in the City of Pontiac, in said County, on the 23rd day of November, A. D. 1951.
Present, Honorable Arthur E. Moore, Judge of Probate.
John E. Martz, Executor of said estate having filed in said Court his First Account from August 31, 1950 to October 31, 1951, and petition praying for the examination and allowance thereof.
It is Ordered, that on the 7th day of January, A. D. 1952, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, at said Probate Court in the Court House in the City of Pontiac, Michigan, he is hereby appointed as the time and place for hearing and proof of said account.
It is Further Ordered, that public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order, once each week, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the Birmingham Eccentric, a newspaper published and circulated in said County, and that notice be given to the creditors and legatees and creditors whose claims have been filed in said Court, by personal service of a copy of this order, or by service of the same by registered mail with return receipt demanded, addressed to the respective last known addresses as shown by the files and records in this cause.
ARTHUR E. MOORE, Judge of Probate. 17-38-59

48,764 Visitors At Science Inst. During 1950-51
Attendance at the Cranbrook Institute of Science for the period from June 1950 to June 1951 was 48,764, according to the 21st annual report of the institution.
This counted total is about 15% below the actual attendance because night groups are not included.
There were 376 daytime group visits, totalling 15,007 persons. Of these, 229 were from public schools and 14 from Cranbrook schools. Other private and parochial school visits accounted for 10 groups, colleges for 14 and scout groups, 69.
GROUPS FROM OTHER states included four from Ohio, three from Indiana and one from Illinois. Organizations using the building for regular meetings included the Detroit Audubon Bird Survey Committee, Michigan Mineralogical Society, Pontiac Astronomical Club and Bloomfield Hills Camera Club. Institute membership through June 30 totalled 1,165. This is an increase of .15 over the 1950 figure.
The Institute has been established for 21 years and is the only museum of science and natural history in the Greater Detroit area. Director is Robert T. Hatt.
During the past year, Dr. Alexander G. Ruthven, president emeritus of the University of Michigan was elected a trustee to fill a vacancy.
