

Cranbrook 'Erg' Holds 23 Annual Award Ceremony

The Cranbrook School Dramatic Club presented its 23rd annual awards to its members following the recent production of "Janie" which was staged in the school auditorium during the weekend of December 7-8.

Three boys received the highest award, the "Ergation" can give; a gold charm awarded after 75 credits are amassed in either stage design, construction, or acting.

Winners of this medal are Ray Brant, Bob Whitlatch, and "Erg" business manager, Frank Huss.

"Erg" president, Tom Lownes, gave a short talk following the presentation of these awards. He pointed out the importance of the stage crew in putting on a play of the scope of "Janie", adding that he felt this particular group deserved as much credit as the actors, as it was their responsibility to see that the curtain did not go up on an empty stage.

LOWNES THEN awarded membership in the organization to Tom Gossett, Bob Sprague, and set designer Jim Robertson, all having amassed the 25 needed credits for membership.

Honorary memberships were given to Julie Ditchy, Camille Sink, Jane Philipp and Alexandra von Scheele.

After the awards were made, Faculty Advisor Carl G. Wonnberger told the group of his plans for "Erg", which include participation in radio broadcasts to be given next February and March.

Sandra Puls Is Winner Of DAR Award

BY STU SCHEFELE

The selection of Sandra Puls as winner of the D A R good citizenship award for 1952 was announced by Mrs. Hollis Halladay last Friday.

Sandra is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Puls, 185 Linden. Some of her activities as a senior at Birmingham include membership in assembly club, Student Congress, band, G A A, debate, Newcomer's Club, and Junior Musical.

She won both the Torch drive editorial contest and the "Youth for Understanding" essay contest sponsored by Rotary club.

The Piety Hill chapter of the D A R makes this award annually in Birmingham. Three girls are nominated by the senior class and the Faculty makes the final decision.

Marilyn Hart, last year's winner, received second place in the state good citizenship awards.

To all our friends, a most merry and joyous Christmas
