Birmingham Hi-Society

By CAROL HOGSHEAD

Winter is here and Jack Frost has made appropriate the many winter activities enjoyed by all. The Birmingham and Oakland Hills country clubs provided the destination for many toboggan enthusiasts Saturday night. Enjoying the sparkling snow and cold weather from a toboggan were Jane Fisher, Dick Dean, Jean Stillman, Dave Campbell, Mary Fulton, Roger Beebe, Janet Brown, Tom Hotchkiss, Carol Dorman, and Dick Young.

The weekend proved very profitable from a financial standpoint when many clubs sponsored bake sales and paper drives.

TRI-A CONDUCTED both a paper drive and bake sale. The former was under chairmanship of Chris Levring and the latter directed by Kathy Nieman.

Grinnell's became the stopping place for Christmas gifts and the Future Nurses' club Saturday, with a bake sale. The money is to go to the Christmas project.

CTA's bake sale was at Campbell's Village store.

BRAND OF OLD MUSIC—Leaning against the shop of a musical instrument-maker in New York's unconventional Greenwich Village, Oscar Brand, singer of folk songs, strums lazy melodies from a 17th century Theorbo guitar. The rare contrabass instrument and the lyric of Brand's tune appear to keep the youngster on the sidewalk entranced.

Looking rather ragged in its first appearance, the Birmingham high school swimming team nevertheless managed to get by Hazel Park 47-37 there last Friday afternoon.

Somewhat hampered by Hazel Park's 20 yard pool, the Maples could not hit their stride and allowed the Vikings to win four of nine events.
