Lee Thurston At Troy High School Ded.

A highlight in the history of the Troy township school system will take place Friday, Dec. 28, at 8 p.m. when the dedication program of the new Troy high school is scheduled.

Dr. Lee M. Thurston, state superintendent of public instruction, will be main speaker. Congressman George A. Dondero also will be introduced and will give a talk on "Reminiscences."

Chairman of the program is Charles B. Martell, president of the Troy board of education. William J. Emerson, superintendent of Oakland County schools is to deliver a greeting and Troy Superintendent Stuart Baker will introduce guests.

PRESENTING SELECTIONS will be the high school glee club and band.

The $600,000 structure opened for classes this fall. Besides the combined gymnasium-auditorium, it has 19 rooms. Also included are board of education offices.

This two-story brick and cinder block building located on Livernors road, just north of Big Beaver road, accommodates junior and senior high school students.

Dr. Thurston has been state superintendent of public instruction since 1948. He is the author of many articles in educational publications and is a member of the editorial staff of Nation's Schools.

MEN IN SERVICE

Crew Member of Ship Back From Korean Action

GREAT LAKES, ILL. Richard L. Walters, fire controlman, third class, USN, husband of Mrs. Margaret Walters of Pontiac, and son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Walters, 6720 Coolidge Highway, Birmingham arrived in Long Beach, Calif., Dec. 8 aboard the heavy cruiser USS Helena after more than eight months of action against Communism in Korea.

Upon arrival in Korea, the Helena relieved frontline pressure on U.N. ground forces by blasting railroad bridge and road junctions and inflicting heavy damage and casualties on enemy troops at Kosong.

AT WONSAN HARBOR, the Helena received one direct hit in a fiery duel with enemy shore batteries as only four men received minor wounds. In August, the ship moved into within 20 miles of the Russian border to support an air strike.

Although zigzagging and maneuvering at high speed, the Helena was hit by a salvo at Hungnam during a heavy dueling session with enemy shore batteries. After dodging enemy guns, the ship headed "home."

EDWARD K. P. SIMETZ seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. P. Simetz, 1385 Pierce, has completed recruit training at the U. S. Naval training center, Great Lakes, Ill. The 11-week training period is designed to benefit the recruit through academic lectures and personal experience. (U. S. Navy Photo).
