Community Caroling
 Santa Claus will be at the Walnut Lake Community Christmas Carol Sing Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. Everyone is urged to bring a flashlight and join in the singing.
 The tree is truly a community tree, all organizations have had a part in its development. The civic improvement committee of the Women's club presented the idea to the club. The club purchased the living tree and the school gave permission for it to be planted on the school grounds. Donations from school children and members of the community supplied the money for the lights and wiring. The garden group donated the star for the top of the tree.
 Girl Scouts and Brownies have little red caps which they will wear when they help lead the singing.
 The Men's club, at their business meeting last week voted to provide a gift for every child and to make sure that Santa Claus would be on hand for the festivities. Don Benway will be master of ceremonies.

Christmas Baskets
 The social service committee of the Women's club is packing baskets for three families, one of which has seven children, five boys and two girls, between the ages of one and eleven. Mrs. Roland Walton will accept toys or clothing for these families. She and her committee will deliver the baskets Sunday.
Goodfellows
 The Goodfellows paper sale was held here Saturday. Don Benway, R. C. Banker, Phil Enrich, Reg. Smith, Weber Young, Ed Stevens and Howard Gould were aided by Roland Benway, Philip Enrich and Edson Stevens in the door to door campaign. The money raised will be used for families in West Bloomfield township.

Pre-Christmas Affairs
 Junior Big, under the direction of Edwin F. Kirbert of the Birmingham YMCA held its Christmas party at the school Friday evening. The chapters were Kelly Sundstrom and Don Harrison. The refreshments were served by the committee of Judy Sundstrom, Jack Faling, Pamela Parkins, Tommie Harrison and Sharon Gibson.
 Sue Sloan, Beverley Stradinger, Joanne Heller, Louisa Roberts and Don Guest are members of the Birmingham High School choir. The group sings today at 1:45 p.m. over WCAR. Pontiac. They have been singing Christmas songs around Birmingham for the past two weeks.
 The Garden group of Mrs. Parker Rockwell, Mrs. Arthur Kane, Mrs. Henry Jockel, Mrs. Kelly Sundstrom, Mrs. John Parkins, Mrs. C. M. Holley, Mrs. Thomas Snyder and Mrs. A. M. Heineman met at the home of Mrs. R. C. Banker, Thursday. They made "greens" to sell to earn money for the star for the top of the Community Christmas tree.
 Mrs. Lee D. Hanson, Mrs. William Nach, Mrs. Edson Stevens, Mrs. Donald Irwin and Mrs. Thomas Roberts attended the special council meeting and tea for Girl Scout leaders at the Community House Friday.

Church Council Backs Outdoor Pool Program
 At its meeting last week the Birmingham Council of Churches expressed itself as favoring efforts to hold an outdoor memorial swimming pool.
 The group also discussed the value of visual education programs in church work, and formulated plans for the annual Youth Week observance Jan. 27-Feb. 2.
 An announcement was made that the First Presbyterian church would begin construction of its new W. Maple church next year, if materials are available.

READY TO SKI-DADDLE—Dagmar Rom, Austrian ladies' slalom and giant slalom world skiing champion, tries her skill on a ski-bob at Zugspitze, Germany, during the recent opening of the German winter sports season. Miss Rom, a member of the Austrian Olympics winter sports team, regarded the ski-bob race as a welcome break in her hard pre-Olympic training on Germany's highest mountain. The ski-bob is a combination of bicycle and ski.
