Eleanor Penfield Repeats Vows in Pre-Yule Rites

The Saturday before Christmas was chosen by Eleanor Baldwin Penfield and Guilford Lawson Spencer for their candlelight wedding ceremony, which took place at four o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church.

MRS. GUILFORD L. SPENCER II

Mrs. Paul L. Penfield of Lake Park drive, and the groom son of Mrs. Alice G. Spencer of Wellesley Hills, Mass., repeated their vows before the bride's grandfather, the Rev. Thornton B. Penfield of Englewood, N. J., one of the three ministers performing the ceremony.

Dr. W. Glen Harris of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham and the Rev. Thornton B. Penfield, Jr. of the First Presbyterian Church of Yonkers, N. Y., assisted with the single-ring rites.

THE BRIDE wore a gown of off-white satin with a short train. Her keyhole neckline was set off by a high, wide, pointed collar, and a front panel of beauteous rose point lace.

Her long, fitted sleeves were finished with rose point lace gathered into cuffs.

Her groom's sister, Glorin Spencer of New York, Elizabeth Horton, Hildreth Spencer of Adrian, and Loretta Tatro completed the list of attendants.

Jim, former Baldwin High school student, will appear in George Jessel's new film, "Wait 'Til the Sun Shines, Nellie".

Even before that, Jim will appear in the Stu Erwin show a regular Friday night feature. He had to turn down a role in "Bells

Then in April Jim made his decision. That it was the right one is proven by his rapid rise in a profession that is noted for its strenuous pitfalls.

Jim hopes to be home for a few days before the first of the year. His many friends in Birmingham are anxious to congratulate him on the determination and talent which has resulted in his success.

Two years of pre-medical course at Wayne followed, after which Jim returned home to enter Wayne University.
