Teen-Agers' Dance Friday Evening At Birmingham C. C.

Friday evening, December 28th, will be a festive event for many Birmingham teen-agers, who will congregate at the Birmingham Country Club for the dances scheduled for that evening.

Thirteen to nineteen year-olds will dance from nine o'clock to midnight to the music of Fred Netting's orchestra, borrowed from WWJ for the occasion.

Among those hosting supper parties at the club before the dance begins is Penny Nelson, who will entertain twenty-two guests.

Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Lovell and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Landry are the evening's patrons.

Kennedy-Campbell Rites Announced

Former Birmingham residents, Mr. and Mrs. Truman E. Campbell announce the marriage of their daughter, Martha Jeandry Campbell to Robert Markman Kennedy of Jenkintown, Pa.

The ceremony was held at five o'clock Friday afternoon, Dec. 14, in the Campbell home on Independence boulevard, Ann Arbor.

Janet Campbell was her sister's maid of honor, and another sister, Ellen, was her bridesmaid.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kennedy, asked his father to be his best man.

A wedding supper followed the rite. The newlyweds left for Whitney Beach, Sarasota, Fla., later in the evening. They will make their home in Norfolk, Virginia, where the groom is stationed with the Navy.

News About GIRL SCOUTS

TROOP 38, ADAMS SCHOOL. At a pre-Christmas meeting of the Intermediate Girl Scouts of Troop 38, they made red crinoline stockings and decorated them at home. The stockings were filled with Christmas cookies made by Mrs. Thayer M. Cowman, and each contained a popcorn ball, contributed by Mrs. Kenneth Janke. Included also was a kaleidoscope and a candy cane.

The stockings were brought to the get-together for the fifth and sixth grade troops at Adams School, and were given as the Troop 38 offering to Family Service.

The troop sang Christmas Carols in the corridors of the Pontiac General Hospital on December 22. After the caroling, they returned to the home of Mrs. Jack Houghton for a troop birthday party.

TROOP 41, WING LAKE. Before the Christmas holiday, the Girl Scouts of Troop 41 held their patrol system. They chose as leaders Bitsy Wright, Gail TROOP 52, PIERCE SCHOOL. Scribes Jolly Lamet and Joan Carroll report that the Brownies of this troop have made needle cases for their mothers' Christmas gifts and have also made Christmas ornaments. The doll cradles which they made were attractively wrapped and sent to children at the Maybury Sanatorium.

TROOP 53, BALDWIN SCHOOL. The Brownies of Troop 53 held a Christmas Tea for their mothers and teachers on December 19 at the Community House. All joined in singing Christmas Carols. After refreshments were served, the Brownies presented their mothers with gifts they had made.

Mrs. James Grant is the leader

Pringnitz and Joanne Gissler. A Christmas party was held at the home of a troop member, and a gift group was in charge of refreshments; another group provided entertainment, and the third group decorated.

BROWNIE TROOPS 34, 64, 65. These troops held a joint Christmas party in the cafeteria at Pierce School on Monday, December 17. Caroling was followed by several acts of entertainment put on by Brownie members.

The girls exchanged small gifts and enjoyed refreshments supplied by the leaders. Leaders were assisted by Troop Committee members Mrs. R. Lorenzen, Mrs. C. Vogel, Mrs. J. Lane, Mrs. F. Stanley and Mrs. F. Gould.

with a fitted bodice flowing into a bouffant skirt and full train. Her portrait neckline was inset with tulle and edged with embroidery.

An heirloom cap of rosepoint lace held her veil of French illusion.

AZURE BLUE was the color theme of the taffeta and velvet gowns worn by the maid of honor and four bridesmaids. Completing their costumes were crownless caps of blue velvet caught in buck with matching bows.

They preceded the bride down the aisle carrying bouquets of red roses with green and silver foliage. The groom's sister, Margaret Susan Halsted, was the honor attendant. The list of attendants continued with Mrs. Robert D. Steketee, Carolyn Wade, Rosemary Wilcox and Barbara Post.

Harold Gasser, Jr., came from Birmingham to be the best man. John Bloomstrom, Lee Daly, Edward Lawton, Richard Kent and Thomas Halsted performed the ushers' duties.

A slate blue taffeta gown with matching hat was selected by Mrs. Johnstone for her daughter's nuptials. Mrs. Halsted was in mauve taffeta, and also wore a matching hat.

AMONG THE Birmingham guests present at the Peninsular Club reception which followed the rites were Mr. and Mrs. Morris M. Halsted, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Welby, Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Vero G. Perry, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Moore.
