June 19, the Birmingham Toastmasters' club will receive its official charter.

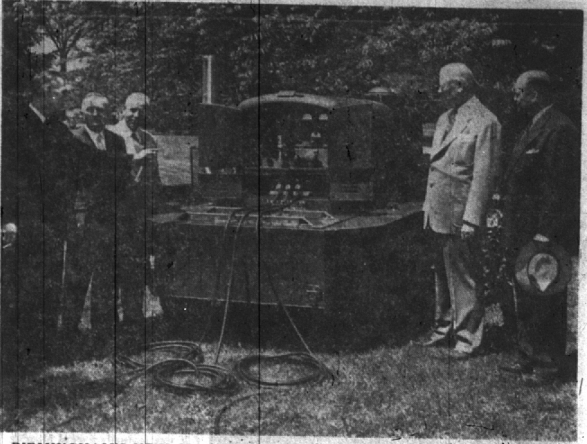

The township this week became the first township in the county to set up its own driver's bureau.

Placing first in a recent civil service examination, the name of Bernard E. Fowler, 564 Chester, has been submitted by President Truman to the Senate for approval as Birmingham postmaster.

The first hole on Oakland Hills Country club's golf course is cited in this week's Collier's Magazine as one of the 18 "toughest and most interesting" in the world. Famous amateur golfer Frank Stranahan picked the holes from the courses he has played on. The first hole is par four and 440 yards in length.

When Iverson Martin, Eddie Sussala and Toby Lyons tee off at 8 a.m. Thursday, June 14, the 51st United States Golf association National Open Championship will get underway at Oakland Hills Country Club, Lahser and West Maple. This will be the third time in the past 27 years the classic has been held at Oakland Hills.

Issue of June 21: Rantan Ben Hogan demonstrated he was a true champion last Saturday, as he came from behind to win the National Open Golf championship at Oakland Hills (Continued on Next Page)
