GETTING THE "FEEL" of operating the police radar speed control unit is Patrolman Ralph Kelley, assigned to the traffic division. Kelley is shown testing the equipment immediately after its installation Monday afternoon. Street signs, for city and state traffic routes, are ready for installation, warning motorists that radar control is now operating in Birmingham. Police Chief Ralph Moxley said the unit will be operated on a "courtesy" basis for a short time, with offenders being notified by mail that they have violated speed limits. He declined to say how long this "courtesy" period would last, however.

Dearborn Motors Corp. observed its fifth anniversary Friday at an assembly of its 600 employees. Highlight of the celebration was the cutting of a nine-foot birthday cake by Vice-President Merritt D. Hill, above. Hill briefly reviewed the company's rapid growth to become one of the major farm equipment firms in the nation.

Two Draw 90-Day Terms In Local Justice Court

Judge John J. Gaffill sentenced two men to 90 days in the county jail at hearings here Friday.

Hollis L. Hendricks, 36, of Lake Orion, was sentenced on a drunk driving charge after being involved in a four-car crash at Woodward and 14 Mile Nov. 21.

Harold J. Garrett, 66, of Detroit, was turned over to local authorities last week by Pleasant Ridge police to face charges of getting money under false pretenses.

Garrett had been sought for a year after soliciting advertising here, supposedly for the American Legion.
