

TWO MEMBERS OF THE CITY'S forestry department string lights on the big tree in Shain Memorial park, ready for the Christmas season. The lighted tree, around which the annual Christmas Eve carol is held, is a part of the Yule tradition in Birmingham. Arrangements were made this year to have the tree decorated and lighted Monday in time for the Christmas Prevue, held each year by local merchants. (Joe Wheeler Photo)

Will Add Names
To Service Register
The request of the Birmingham MOMS club to add names to the Service Register, was granted by city commissioners Monday night. The register, dedicated in January, 1944, already contains the names of Birmingham men and women serving in World War II. Others will be added as they enter service after the register has been brought up to date. The list is kept at the Baldwin public library. Use Classified Ad—They Sell!
