Stewart-Nordman Nuptials Held in Berkley, Nov. 29

James Irby, grandfather of the bride, performed the service which united Alma Jean Nordman and Donald Vincent Stewart in marriage at the Berkley Church of Christ on November 29.

Alma Jean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nordman of Bird street, Birmingham. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart of Utica.

Approximately 175 guests attended the formal rites, which took place at 7:30 Thursday evening.

THE BRIDE wore a white lace ballerina-length dress, with a shoulder-length veil. She carried white gardenias, shaped in the form of a cross.

Mrs. Margaret Raester was her sister's honor attendant. Her ballerina-length dress was of blue satin, and she carried a pink carnation corsuopia.

Bridesmaid Jean McCullough wore a pink ballerina-length gown, with an orchid-shade bouquet of carnations. Lucille Wolfe completed the list of attendants in a yellow shaded gown, and carried a bouquet of red carnations.

CHRISTIAN POWELL was best man. Paul LeClair and the bride's brother, Russell Nordman, seated the guests.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise blue dress with a pink velvet hat. Mrs. Stewart chose a purple gown with matching hat for her son's wedding.

Both mothers wore pink carnation corsages.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

The newlyweds couple will make their home on Oakridge avenue, Ferndale.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—all the society editor about them.

Choral Music To Highlight December Meet of Musicales

Choral music with unique instrumental accompaniment will be the feature of the December open meeting of the Birmingham Musicales, to be held at two o'clock Thursday afternoon, December 13, at the Community House.

The Choral Ensemble of 45 voices will make its first appearance of the season, with Gertrude Heinze Greer directing, and Evelyn Kronemeyer as accompanist.

Assisting artists will be Elsie Moon, soprano, and instrumentalists Mary Bartlett and Edward Horton, who will play the harp and flute respectively.

MISS KRONEMEYER, a new member of the Musicales, majored in music at Olivet College and later taught music in the public schools. Elsie Moon is also a solo member of the Musicales.

Mary Bartlett is known in the Detroit area through her appearances with the Detroit and Toledo Symphony orchestras, and her many radio performances. She is also remembered as an instructor at Michigan State College.

Mr. Horton, a local resident, is a member of the Adult Musicians' Workshop, a new group sponsored by the Birmingham Musicales. He recently played with the Jewish Community Center Orchestra, under the direction of Julius Chajes.

MARY LEE ELIASON, cellist, will come from Clarkston to be guest artist of the day. She and her accompanist, Christine Gensbauer, are members of the Pontiac Tuesday Musicales.

Mrs. Eliaison has been a member of the Toledo Symphony orchestra, and toured Europe during the war.

Her group will include compositions by Glazounov, Chopin and Haydn.

At the conclusion of the program, the strolling Madrigal Singers will lead the members and guests into the Wasall Room.

THE SOCIAL chairman, Mrs. Elmore F. Wollering, has asked Mrs. John D. Maynard to be chairman of the tea. Assisting her are Mrs. William C. Rowland, Mrs. Robert H. Hutchison, Mrs. Karl L. Bronson, Mrs. M. S. Rosenberger, Mrs. J. E. DuBois and Mrs. D. L. Tate.

Mrs. Webster Scheffel will decorate the tables.

Greeting the members will be hostesses Mrs. Richard Sneed, Mrs. Paul A. Stocker and Mrs. James K. Van Hook. The House and Stage committee will be headed by Mrs. P. K. Boyne and Mrs. Robert Onderdonk.

Mrs. Frank B. Kutz is custodian of the chorus robes, assisted by Mrs. D. A. Green, and Mrs. Ralph Marson.

Jr. Music Clubs Join for Sunday Afternoon Meeting

From 3 o'clock until 4:30 Sunday afternoon, December 9, the more than one hundred members of the three Birmingham Musicales Junior Clubs will meet in the parlors of the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Joseph Bennett of Pontiac will be the guest speaker. She will present her collection of seventy-five bells from foreign countries, entitled her talk "Bells at Home and Abroad".

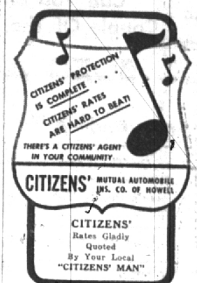

Hostesses for the day include Mrs. Edward Booth, Mrs. J. H. Savage, Jr., Mrs. G. W. Barber, Mrs. H. G. Sasaway, Jr., Mrs. A. W. Berndt and Mrs. R. D. Lynd.

MRS. DONALD STANTON will preside at the punch table.

The three groups attending are the Merry Music Makers, headed by counselors Mrs. B. S. Kingsbury and Mrs. F. Ruffer, the Moment Musicales, which has Mrs. W. G. Haworth as their counselor, and the Junior League, counseled by Mrs. D. L. Tate.
