Crane Varsity Letter Winners Hear Lion Star

Last Tuesday evening, Doak Walker, former Southern Methodist All-American gridder, now a star with the Detroit Lions, spoke to the Cranbrook school varsity letter winners.

The speech concluded the Cranbrook fall football and soccer season. Dan Newby, club president, introduced E. J. Anderson, president of the Detroit Lions, who in turn introduced Walker.

After Walker's informal talk, questions were asked concerning his football career. He recalled that he never expected to be playing professional football, especially against Sammy Baugh, who was playing pro-ball when Doak was in high school.

Walker favors the rules of professional football over those he experienced in high school. He also told the group of 50 letter winners about his relationship since high school with Bobby Layne, present Lion quarterback.

The high salesmen in the magazine drive were Kempf Hogan, $168.75; Carl Christie, $145.47; Ed Peters, $124.25; Bob Thomas, $106.75; Susan Capps, $103 and Carol, $100.

Total for the school was over $8,300. Mrs. Marjorie Hammond's homeroom in the seventh grade topped them all with $758. Miss Lyla McCormick's homeroom was high in the ninth grade and the eighth grade, it was Miss Gladys Rogers' room.

The election for eighth grade cheerleaders resulted in Kitten James, Patty Harmon, Peggy Page, Helen Colwell, Betty Milligan, and Diane Trathen being chosen.

BARNUM'S STUDENT COUNCIL discussed plans for buying a portable phonograph and microphone combined. A committee of Dave Gibbons, Stan Rosenquist, and Jim Moore was appointed to look further into the matter and get estimates on the price of the different makes.

The council decided not to buy the television set that was used at the seventh grade party and the eighth and ninth grade dance. Instead, a three-speed phonograph will be bought.

Members of the seventh grade council have been planning a next party scheduled for seventh graders and it was decided that square-dancing was best. Council members are considering hiring a caller with the money left over from the past dances. Another matter brought up was the possibility of having the 7th grade parties at night instead of 3 to 5 after school.

THE LAST FEW meetings of the National Junior Honor Society have been held in room 107. Purposes for these meetings are to choose committees and make plans for the National Junior Honor Society Dance, "Kris Kringle Kaper", which will be Dec. 14, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Committees and committee members for the dance are: entertainment and music Hester Lewis, Nancy Brown, Joan Sweeting, Ruth Hibbard; tree and stand, Pete Kass and Bob Ketchum; lights, Bruce Scott and Stan Thompson; refreshments, Jim Mosby, Stan Thompson and Bob Ketchum; tickets, Tom Beck, Darlene Pollock, and Ruth Hibbard; publicity, Nancy Brown, Dick Silbar and Joan Sweeting; decorations, Hester Lewis, Joan Sweeting and Nancy Brown.

In the next debate, the team will oppose Hazel Park there Thursday. This school knocked Birmingham out of competition last year. The debate squad is under the direction of Charles F. Thumser.

Local Boys Form Hockey Squad

By HARVEY PETERS

Taking advantage of the ice on Quarton lake and the Charing Cross road pond a group of high school boys have organized a hockey team.

Taking the initiative in organizing the group were John Schoenfeld and Bill Nicholas. The boys are trying to work out some sort of schedule. Cranbrook has agreed to play them in any open date, but any group whether independent or sponsored by a school would find these boys interested in scheduling a team.

The squad consists of Bill Nicholas, captain; John Schoenfeld, Tom Osberger, Dick Shave, Bob Stribe, Mickey O'Connor, John Fredricks, Bob Smith, Lloyd Sutfin, and John Berry.
