"I never cease to marvel..."

writes Mrs. Mabel Sykes of Lansing

Dear Friends:

When I started to write a check for my bill this month, I couldn't help but think how much service it represented.

Friends in Grand Rapids were moving to New Jersey. A call to them made it possible to make arrangements for them to stop here on their way.

I received word that a sister was very ill out in Iowa. Just by lifting my receiver and giving a number in Cedar Rapids, I was in touch with home and assurance that all was coming along fine.

I never cease to marvel how easily we call across the country now without even a wait for the call to go through.

I am not unmindful of the multitude of people who make this service possible, and I wish it were possible to say "thank you" to each one of them.

Sincerely yours,
 Mabel Sykes
