

Southfield Board Revokes Building Permits

By RAY DENNIS

Building permits previously issued to the Standard Building Co. of Detroit for construction of homes on Devonshire road in Beverly Hills were revoked Monday evening at a special meeting of the Southfield township board.

The board stipulated that the permits should be revoked until the company has complied with the building ordinance. The building code provides that

JASCHA WATCHES JAY PLAY—Violin virtuoso Jascha Heifetz and his wife, Frances, beamed with pride when their curly-headed son, young Jay, sat down in their Beverly Hills, Calif., home to improvise on the piano. Maybe, when Jay grows older and his feet can reach the piano's pedals, he'll accompany his famous father

Operetta Slated By Kingswood and Cranbrook Schools

The music departments of Kingswood and Cranbrook schools will present the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta "The Mikado" March 2 and 3 in the Cranbrook School auditorium.

This is the seventh in a series of Gilbert and Sullivan operettas, begun in 1945. The cast will contain over 140 members of the combined Kingswood and Cranbrook glee clubs.

Robert Bates, Cranbrook music instructor, will direct the production, assisted by Mrs. Lois Chapman, Kingswood glee club director, and Axel Magnuson, Jr., Cranbrook orchestra director.

Stage settings are being handled by Robert Louis Stevenson, Cranbrook art instructor.

Hubert V. Davis and Carlston McLean, working with student committees, will handle tickets and publicity.

Removal of Tree Approved by City

City commissioners Monday evening approved removal of a 32-inch diameter maple in front of 283 Merrill.

The property owner requested the old hollow trunk tree be removed because it is continuing to cause damage to the property.

OAKLAND COUNTY RED CROSS NEWS

The American Red Cross is sponsoring courses in standard and advanced first aid.

In conjunction with adult education classes at the Birmingham Community house, a standard course in first aid is being offered from 7:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. The course began Jan. 23.

The course began Jan. 23. The course is being given for the Pontiac-Birmingham area from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Teachers at Baldwin high school have enrolled in a first aid course at the high school.

Another course began at the Southfield Fire hall Jan. 21 from 10:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Bradlee Pruden of Birmingham, chairman of volunteer services, has announced that there will be an orientation course for all new and reactivated American Red Cross volunteers held at the Methodist Church, Royal Oak, Feb. 9.

A first aid instructors course will be offered March 12-16, each night from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. at the Birmingham Community House. Anyone who has passed the standard and advanced courses in the past three years is eligible for admission.

Mrs. W. C. Sproull of Birmingham, chairman of Gray Ladies, announces a class for new Gray Ladies and those wishing a refresher course. Mrs. Sproull will lead the discussions and arrange for speakers. The class begins Feb. 13. Time and place will be announced later.

Volunteers are urged to take the orientation course on Friday, February 9, before enrolling.

Additional blood clinics to procure blood for our fighting men in Korea have been scheduled by the American Red Cross in Oakland County.

Feb. 9 is the date of the blood bank at St. Michael school in Southfield township.

Mrs. Alice James will be in charge of the blood bank to be held in Big Beaver at the Methodist church.

Crane Grapplers Top Howe Squad

Cranbrook school's varsity wrestling team won its second straight meet Saturday afternoon by defeating Howe Military academy of Howe, Ind. 24-19 at Cranbrook.

Cranbrook winners were Grant Grawold, Don Fracassi, Tony Steele and Duncan Patton. The Cranes have won two of four meets this year.

Cranbrook opens league competition at home Feb. 3 against Shady Side academy of Pittsburgh.

IT AIN'T LIZ—New York motion picture and television actress Sheila Connolly was, as usual, mistaken for film actress Elizabeth Taylor as she arrived at Southampton, England. It was because her resemblance to Liz has hampered her acting career that Sheila crossed the Atlantic to break into the movies on her own account. But it seems Miss Taylor, like Kilroy, is known everywhere.
