

Anything wanted that must be gotten through selfishness is not worth the getting. For selfishness taints the object desired and brings only final grief to those who are selfish. One should cast out selfishness as an evil thing.

Scout Honor Court Feb. 5 Will Note Many Promotions

Parents of Scouts in Troop B-4 are invited to a special Court of Honor on Monday, Feb. 5, as a part of National Boy Scout Week. The meeting, which will be held in Adams School gymnasium at 7:30 p.m., will attract scouting officials throughout the city.
Scouts who have advanced in rank since September will be honored at the ceremony, which climaxes a series of Courts of Recognition, held monthly throughout the fall. The advancement record of the troop has been called out, being spurred by a patrol contest under which patrols were given points for all members who advanced at least one rank. The patrol contest comes to a close at the Court of Honor.
Parents will witness a typical Scout meeting, with a formal presentation of colors by the newly organized Explorer unit. Mothers and dads of Scouts will sit on the sidelines and watch the Troop while the Court of Honor is being held, and then witness an intensive "Grady Drill" contest.
