EML Title at Stake as Maples Meet Port Huron
By ART FAIRBANKS
The Big Beds of Port Huron come to Birmingham Friday night with their reputation of stakes and their title on the block. In all the years the two teams have been playing each other, Birmingham has never beaten a Port Huron team twice in the same season. As defending champions of the Eastern Michigan league, the Blue Water boys threw the league race into a three-way tie by their 33-33 victory over front-running Ferris last Friday. Tomorrow's contest will be a showdown game with at least the co-championship of the League going to the victor.
ALTHOUGH THE MAPLES defeated Port Huron three weeks ago, they will meet a vastly improved Huron team which hasn't lost a game since that setback. Birmingham, Port Huron and Ferris are now tied for first place, each with two losses. Ferris has two games left but should not have any trouble with either team and will undoubtedly share the title with the winner of tomorrow's game.
Although his team is not the equal of last year's championship quintet, Coach Reed Laughlin will bring a Huron team determined to avenge the Birmingham defeat. Regarding his team which has experienced a "hot" and "cold" season, Coach Lloyd Cooper says, "If we play the kind of ball we're capable of, we should win the game."
