NEWLY-WEDS CUT CAKE AT RECEPTION
 Held in Home of Bride's Parents

Miss Ruth Elizabeth Averill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Averill of Eastham street, was united in marriage to James Ross McKay of Silver Spring, Maryland, son of Mrs. Helen Fritz McKay of Detroit, on Saturday February 3.

Their vows were spoken to Rev. John D. Rose in Lathrup Community church. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of traditional white satin which featured a bertha neckline of lace. Her veil fell from a satin cap with head trim. She carried white orchids on her own Bible. Her jewelry was a double strand of pearls.

Miss Ruth Averill was best man and Richard Averill and George Leeper were ushers. Mrs. Averill selected a dress and hat of slate blue and pink orchids. Mrs. McKay chose a dress of pure silk in a toast shade, a hat of green and brown and green orchids.

After the reception in the home of the bride's parents, the young couple left for Silver Spring where they will live.
