AFTER a trip to Michigan, Thomas H. Mullen, a Chicago store supplier, wrote this letter to Michigan Bell's Battle Creek office:

"I want to thank your office for the fine co-operation extended to a stranger in your city. I arrived in Battle Creek where I was to be met by business friends and taken to a sales conference in Coldwater. There was no one on hand to meet me. Furthermore, there was no way to get to Coldwater since the plant was closed. I told my predicament to your operator and asked her help. She made call after call until she located an executive of the plant. A car was sent for me and I reached the sales conference on time. Thanks a million for getting me out of a very tight spot. It's people who make telephone service good."

There's Chicken every Sunday at the Cantors... cooked Electrically!

"Eddie and I agree on almost everything," says Mrs. Cantor (better known as Ida to her husband's fans)—"and we're unanimous about our modern Electric Range. When he sees one put something in the oven, set the controls, and then leave the kitchen, he really opens his eyes. Then I come back, take out the meat all ready to serve, and he says, 'We should live long enough to enjoy a thing like this. It's like magic!'"

You'll agree, too, on the modern Electric Range—the "Range of the Stars." It's so fast, so clean, so economical! Cooks come out perfect, roast, shrink less, the broiler does things a turn. It's all due to automatic controls, and heat that cooks without flame.
