who pays the bill?

Last year, Michigan's commercial vehicles paid the state nearly $30,000,000 in motor fuel, weight, and other special taxes.
Last year, the State of Michigan's total expenses for repair and maintenance of trunk lines was just over $12,000,000.
Thus commercial vehicles paid taxes for their use of the highways totalling 2 1/2 times the state's cost of maintaining and repairing all trunk highways.
