

University High Defeats Cranbrook

An extremely small Ann Arbor court was all it took for University of Michigan high school basketball squad to defeat Cranbrook last Friday night 35-29.

CRANBROOK HIT

game was merely a foul-shooting contest for Ann Arbor. Cranbrook scoring with eight points. Reserve guard Bill Weiner led the home team with 10 points.

Port Huron Cage Squad Takes Win Over Birmingham

BY BILL AIKENS Birmingham's recently revived hopes for a share in the Western Michigan league basketball championship were blasted last Friday night when Port Huron upset the favored Maples at the Baldwin gym 45-40.

Many Birmingham residents connected with both Kingswood and Cranbrook schools are helping produce the forthcoming musical comedy, "The Mikado" to be given in Cranbrook School auditorium March 3, 4 and 5.

BY ART FAIRBANKS THE DISTRICT tournaments which have been at Ferndale in the past will be played in the new Berkley gym this year.

WITH GARY OSTERBECK and Ypsilanti's Bill Sinden swimming neck-and-neck in the 100 yard freestyle at Ferndale last week, it looked like a photo finish between these two. But Maple Jim Newman came out of nowhere to catch Sinden at the finish in a dead heat.
