

IT SAYS HERE...

BY BARBARA AVERILL. As we slowly approach spring-time we find everyone bustling about, especially our seniors. Preparations for the 1951 Washington trip demand attention, and information about what to wear and how to travel gathers in our files. "Chaper by the Dozen" are nearly completed, and we are all looking forward to this production with great enthusiasm.

QUITE A FEW of the clubs are holding paper drives and bake sales. Tri-A, also in the midst of decorating a room at children's home, held a bake sale at Campbell's last Saturday. The Emerald Key club gave a shower for Marge Defano Marshall. This added a little variety from the usual trend of pledging.

MARGARET IRELAND attended the Winter Carnival at Dartmouth college last week. She was the guest of Ted Werner. Marjorie Klemmer, Barb Chesley, Marilyn Hart, Barb Stridinger, Jan Kindley, Nancy Davison, Rosemary Hicks, Velma Harris, Clara Dorman, Kay McKenzie, Barb Bertling, Margaret Ireland, Barb Hubbard, Ailja Jean Nordman, and Beppie Wiesler, along with dozens of others were cheering the Maple team on through both games Friday. We'll be back again next week with more news.
