

Valentine Theme Used In Recent Evening Ceremony

Miss Sallie Slocum became the bride of Joseph M. Preece, Jr. at an evening ceremony on February 2.

MRS. J. M. PREECE, JR.

Mrs. Frederick Vernon Slocum, of Bedford road, Grosse Pointe Park; The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mantley Preece of Orchard Ridge road, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride wore a gown of heavy antique ivory satin with bertha and cuffs of duchesse lace with rose-pointe medallions, which had been on her grandmother's wedding dress. The veil of Brussels lace fell from a heart-shaped cap of the same lace. It had been worn by her mother. She carried a crescent of gardenias and hyacinths with a heart corsage in the center. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

HER ONLY ATTENDANT was her young sister Helen Slocum. She wore a dress of embroidered white organza over red tulle, with a red tulle sash. Her white cap was embroidered and on it she wore red ribbons. Her bouquet was of red carnations and roses in a heart, shaped of white hyacinths with a red arrow thru the heart.

ELDEN PORTER, of Bloomfield, N. J., served his friend as best man. The Lochno country club was the scene of the reception, held for two hundred friends and relatives. It followed the 8 o'clock ceremony. Mrs. Slocum chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of champagne crepe trimmed with lace of the same shade. Her flowers were cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Preece selected a gown of softly shirred aqua chiffon. With this she wore a matching hat and a corsage of her favorite, pink carnations.

WHEN THE YOUNG COUPLE departed for their honeymoon the bride was wearing a navy and white checked suit and navy accessories. She completed her outfit with a felt hat and the heart shaped corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The newlyweds will return to Ann Arbor to live where they will finish their senior year of college.

Guild, these Brownies have decided to also make two quilts from materials contributed by the guild. This week the Brownies are busy making nut cups to be used on Valentine's Day at the Folio Convalescent Home. They are making their own Valentines and will have a Valentine party on their next regular meeting day, Tuesday, February 13.

TROOP 26 OF PIERCE School went on a snow hike on Wednesday January 31. They started from the home of Mrs. Fortune. The girls went in search of animal tracks and during the search lost four of their girls. When the girls were found, they all returned to Mrs. Fortune's and enjoyed hot chocolate and cookies which was served by their hostess.

TROOP 33 at Pierce School has been making books showing all second class requirements. They are all set for the book sale and at the last meeting made plans for a Valentine tea. Jane Green served snacks, Judy Sterling and Mary Alice Thurber being the special scribes, reporting for this troop.

TROOP 16 at Adams School elected new officers last week. The Friendly Patrol leader is Darlene Johnson with Jan Lemtscuer as assistant. Leading the Helping Hand Patrol is Cathy Crockett with Carol Wallers assisting. Shirley Swigart is the new treasurer and Jennifer Schwarz will be scribe.

A party was given last week to honor Julia Freiling, second class Scout, who is moving to Saginaw. The troop gave her a corsage, and dixie cups were served. Mrs. Satterthwaite assisted Mrs. Doty at this meeting.

A new member of Troop 16 is Carolyn Cordell. She will be inducted February 20. The lily-of-

AAUW Committee Makes Plans for Annual Fashion Show, Tea

Mrs. Anthony J. Daley, ticket chairman; Mrs. William Milligan, tea chairman; Mrs. Milton F. Mallender, general chairman; and Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington who is in charge of arrangements, meet to discuss plans for the club's Fashion Show and Tea. The affair, put on by the J. L. Hudson company and sponsored by the AAUW, will be given at 2 p.m. on March 13 at the Cranbrook gymnasium.

The valley has been selected as the Troop crest.

Birmingham emblems were purchased with part of the money earned by the sale of calendars.

TROOP 13 OF Quanton school under the direction of Mrs. William Bond and Mrs. Arthur Hudson, entertained Troop 30, whose leader is Mrs. Robert Reinhardt and Mrs. Brooks Marshall, by presenting a play that they wrote and produced themselves. The name of the play was "Sentimental Scarecrow."

The following girls took part in the play. Joly Fredrickson took the title lead of the scarecrow. Linda Corey the brunette girl, Barbara Bond the blonde girl, Anne Alexander the fiddler, Linda Kobess the Gypsy woman, Bebe Blakeman the Gypsy boy, Jane Hudson the Gypsy dancer and Andrea Hewlett played the part of Polly. The parts of the Gypsies were taken by Sharon Carpenter and Sue Perry.

Susan Jesson provided the piano music. The scenery was made by Sue Bollinger and Sue DeNador. The hostesses were Sue Conway and Jean Burnham. Refreshments were served after the play. They had as their guest Mrs. L. C. Falvey. The girls will renege the play for the mothers of Troop 13 on Valentine's Day.

Deadline for society club news is noon each Monday.

Wed Saturday

Margaret M. Dreystadt, daughter of Mrs. Bernard Amer Goode of Birmingham and the late Mr. Goode, whose marriage to William Ray Keller took place Saturday, February 3. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin James Keller of Pontiac.

Madrigal Singers To Be Featured

The Madrigal Singers and the Cranbrook Instrumental Ensemble will highlight a program of the Birmingham Musicale at the Community House today.

A newly organized group of musical members, the Madrigal, are under the direction of Mary Jane Walker. Ruth Killeen, soprano, will be featured as soloist. She will be accompanied by Kent McDonald, chairman of St. James Episcopal Church.

Members of the Ensemble are William Casey, flute and clarinet; Axel Magnuson, Jr., violin and viola, and Robert Bates, pianist.

CHAIRMAN OF THE DAY is Mrs. James Gilton. Chairman of the tea committee is Mrs. James K. Van Hook, assisted by Mrs. J. F. Pender, Mrs. Lett R. Elin, Mrs. William Crist, Mrs. Mitchell E. Foster and Mrs. Arthur Raich.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Dain Milliman, Mrs. Lloyd Southard and Mrs. Frank Reynolds. House and stage arrangements will be handled by Mrs. Robert Gibson, Mrs. Edward Batty and Mrs. R. C. Steele.

costumed Madrigal Singers will pour. They are Mrs. Earl B. Bolomey, Mrs. Maxine Garbrant, Mrs. Harold Sherman and Mrs. James Noon.

Mrs. L. W. Robertson, president, asked members to bring phonograph records, used or new, for the club's collection for children's and veterans' hospitals.

Ruth Kadell Plays Lady Storyteller

MISS RUTH L. KADELL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kadell of Lakewood drive, is a senior student at Purdue university where she is majoring in pharmacy. She has also been taking the role of Lady Storyteller on a weekly radio program, broadcast over station WBAA from the Purdue campus.

THE PROGRAM, consisting of a dramatization of a complete children's story each week, reaches some 30,000 children from the first through the fourth grades in schools throughout Indiana.

Every spring, near the end of the school year, WBAA holds its Lady Storytellers party. The program was begun in 1944 and last year over 300 children took part in the annual half-hour special broadcast and party where they met the Lady Storyteller.

"Harvey" Cast Enjoys Play Rehearsal

Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, as Aunt Veta Simmons, watches Elwood, played by Donald Hutton, as he gives his friend "Harvey" a light in the play of the same name, to be given by St. Dunstan's Guild, in their Pavilion on Lone Pine road. The production will run Friday and Saturday, February 16 and 17 and Friday and Saturday, February 23 and 24. It is being directed by Mrs. Edward Reid.

News About GIRL SCOUTS

There will be a meeting of the Birmingham Girl Scout Council on Friday, February 9, at the Community House, Mrs. James F. Abbott will preside.

The Brownies' troop 52 at Pierce school had a snow hike, organized by their assistant leader Mrs. John Pietsch. The Brownies' troop 52 at Pierce school had a snow hike, organized by their assistant leader Mrs. John Pietsch. The Brownies' troop 52 at Pierce school had a snow hike, organized by their assistant leader Mrs. John Pietsch.

Mothers of Brownies in this group have also been active. Some have opened their kitchens for baking lessons. Recently Mrs. Walter Beyer, Mrs. Arthur Nelson and Mrs. Russell Smith attended a meeting to teach knitting. Each Brownie is finishing a square, which when joined will become a baby blanket to contribute to the Needlework Guild. Inspired by the materials and simple patterns for baby quilts and clothing displayed by Mrs. John W. Shenfield, Scout service chairman for the Needlework

BIGELOW
SUN VALLEY CARPET

A purchase, made some months ago, makes this price possible — on this beautiful, pure imported wool carpet!

Handsome, Decorative Scroll-Leaf Design
Choice of Rich Gray, Powder Green or Rose Beige
12 ft. Widths

$12.50 Square Yard

BUDGET TERMS AVAILABLE

Harold B. Brown CARPETS and RUGS

2862 Woodward Between 11 & 12 Mile Rd. Berkeley

a rare fur
a precious jewel
a beautiful woman

ALL are synonymous with magnificent, new

Gold satin perfume
by Angelique

Destined to be the world's most talked about perfume, Gold Satin... a heady, sensuous blend of rare florals and lavish amber tones is here now at our perfume counter. To our city's trend-setting women, we say, try it... treasure it... for your moments of a lifetime!

Perfume from $2.50 to $18
Cologne from $1.75 to $8.50

Wilson's TOILETRIES DEPT.
PHONE MI-4-5600

STORE HOURS 9:30 to 5:30

Telephone Midwest 4-7200

In the Spring smart women shoppers' fancy turns to

AMERICAN GOLFERS

... and quite naturally to Davidson's!

BUILT FOR ACTION — THE AMERICAN GOLFER WITH COTTON KNIT BACK AND YOKE

Just the kind of a dress the real golfer has been longing for, well tailored and good looking, and practical because she has complete freedom of movement with back and yoke of cotton knit. Unconditionally washable, of course. A real American Golfer gem for $10.95.

american golfer

DAVIDSON'S
Award Shirts Incorporated
WOODWARD AVENUE BIRMINGHAM