

Vacation Layoff Affects League

After a three week layoff, due to the Christmas holiday vacation closing of the schools, the intramural Birmingham YMCA basketball league got underway Monday in three games played in the Baldwin high school gymnasium.

All six teams definitely showed effects of the long-vacation period through ragged play and frequent fouling.

T. B. Ray's rack up its first victory 39 to 25, over Birmingham Merchants.

The lead in this game, exchanged hands three times before the boys from Troy township broke forth with a scoring rally in the closing minutes.

Y PHALANX REMAINED undefeated as it chalked up its third win with a 42-31 count over North Chevrolet All Stars. Until the closing minutes of play, the two teams battled back and forth with no more than four points separating the winning and losing teams.

Y Married Men scored a 27 to 26 win over Mulhollands when time ran out in the closing seconds of play.

Three games will be played Monday evening, Jan. 15, at Baldwin high, when Birmingham Merchants take on Y Married Men at 7 p.m., Mulhollands plays North Chevrolet at 8, and Y Phalanx meets T. B. Ray's at 9.
