

Two New Faculty Members Now at Baldwin High School

Recent additions to the Baldwin faculty are Robert Richards and Mrs. Edith Delavan. Richards, who originally came from Ironwood, Mich., replaced John Simonds in the social studies department. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees at Michigan State college. Before coming to Baldwin, Richards was personnel technician of the civil service division at Lansing.

Mrs. Delavan originally came from Birmingham, Ala., and graduated from Vassar college. Before she replaced Mrs. Jean Nance in the office, she worked for "Glimpse" magazine. In the summer she and her husband supervise a camp.

Local Swimmers To Meet Jewish Community Center

With an open date in the schedule, Maple swimming coach J. Jay Myers has scheduled a meet with the Detroit Jewish Community Center for next Tuesday, Jan. 10 at 8 p.m. in the Barnum pool. The meet has a record of two victories and no defeats in dual meet competition this season. Its organizers are Marshall Cortney and Bob Marans. Along with these boys, Jim Laveyko, 1943 Detroit 200 yard Freestyle champion, should help give the fans a most to remember. There is a possibility that Bumpy Jones, holder of almost all the Detroit swimming records, will also swim in the meet. This meet is free and will serve as an open house for fans.

BARNUM JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

Barnum's eighth grade basketball team opened its 10 game schedule Tuesday at Royal Oak against Royal Oak Junior High. This year's squad is much larger than last year's team; however, the present eighth graders are lower, and to date haven't displayed the style of ball Coach Cooper and Jeanie Sproule expected of them later in the season. The boys are exceptionally green but scrappy and are working hard to have a successful season.

THE TEAM is one with no particular stars and a battle is going on for all positions. Boys who have shown up in early drills are Ed Peters, center; Dick Sheldon, Tom Hotehickis and Jim Mosby, forward; and Pete Gass, Benett Wright, Bob Goldsmith, and Dick Morgan, guards. Newcomer Don Sousa is expected to make a strong bid for starting honors at forward or center.

This year's schedule is the longest the 8th grade team has had, and is maximum under junior high rules. Other teaming on the schedule include Oak Ridge, Berkeley, Pontiac, Eastern, and St. Hugo. Some games are preceded by a reserve or 7th grade tilt.

THE BARNUM NINTH grade basketball team plays its first two Little Oak league games this week at Royal Oak, Jan. 9, and with Cranbrook at Barnum, Thursday, Jan. 11.
