

Wasylik-Uebele Rites Read In Candlelight Ceremony

The eight o'clock evening nuptial ceremony of Miss Marjorie Joan Uebele and John Wasylik was solemnized last Saturday January 13, at the Episcopal church. Miss Uebele is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Edward Uebele, Jr., of Orchard Ridge road in Bloomfield Hills and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wasylik of Detroit are parents of the bridegroom.

For the candlelight service the bride wore a simply styled gown of candlelight satin with silk neck-line closing in a row of tiny satin buttons down the front of the snug fitting bodice. Her full gored skirt featured a soft bustle which extended into a cathedral length train.

MRS. JOHN WASYLIK

THE BRIDAL VEIL of silk illusion fell from a pearl encrusted tiara and extended to the edge of her long train. Miss Uebele carried an arrangement of white gerberas centered with a white orchid.

As maid of honor, Miss Jane Eckenrode of Birmingham was long sleeves, and a matching lace and tulle capelet. An orchid corsage completed her ensemble.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Wasylik, chose a powder blue crepe frock, detailed with cap sleeves and a draped bodice. She wore a matching hat, white gloves and orchid corsage.

THE BRIDESMAIDS WERE Miss Eva Wasylik, a sister of the bridegroom; Miss Richard Crom of Des Moines, Ia.; Mrs. Robert Andrews of Birmingham, Mrs. Alex Galtsof of Romeo; Miss Beverly Witte of Detroit; and Miss Charlotte Huff of Chicago.

All the maids wore identically styled gowns of turquoise velvet with matching headresses and carried arm bouquets of long stemmed yellow roses.

TINY CAROL WIGGINS, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiggins of Birmingham were master and mistress of ceremonies, assisted the bride as flower girl. Her frock was of gold velvet with a matching braided headress and she carried a basket of rose petals.

Robert Gibson of Birmingham served the bridegroom as best man and the guests were seated by James Neville, Arnold White, Harry Phillips, Duane Cripps and Gray Mather, all of Detroit and the bride's brother, Bert Edward Uebele, III, of Bloomfield Hills.

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding and following reception at Oakland Hills Country club, Mrs. Uebele selected a wood rose shaded gown of Chantilly lace over tulle styled with petite jacket.

long sleeves, and a matching lace and tulle capelet. An orchid corsage completed her ensemble.

BEFORE LEAVING for a West Indies cruise on the Mauretania, the bride donned a cinnamon costume suit trimmed in black with black accessories.

Upon their return the new Mr. and Mrs. Wasylik will make their home in Birmingham.
