

Burlingame-McKinney Vows Taken in St. Dunstan Chapel

Rev. William Mead officiated in the six o'clock afternoon ceremony January 19 at St. Dunstan's Chapel of Christ Church Cranbrook, officiating in marriage Miss Martina McKinney and Andrew David Burlingame.

Miss McKinney is the daughter of Mrs. F. H. McKinney of Puritan road and the late Mr. McKinney. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. H. S. Burlingame of Bonnie Briar road and the late Mr. Burlingame.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her brother, Joseph M. McKinney, the bride wore an eggshell Ottoman suit accented with rhinestone buttons, rounded lapels and lace inserts at the oval neckline. Her veiled hat was of an eggshell hue and she carried a green orchid with stephanotis on a white prayer book.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. C. A. Miller of Birmingham as matron of honor. Mrs. Miller's suit was of ice pink fabric with matching pink veiling forming her headress. She carried a bouquet of deep pink roses and white stephanotis.

RICHARD L. BURLINGAME of Ann Arbor was his brother's best man and the guests were seated by Arthur Miller of Birmingham and

MRS. A. D. BURLINGAME
William Vandenberg of Grand Rapids.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Parian road home of the bride for which Mrs. McKinney selected a silver blue and white silk print dress and jacket with white felt hat and corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a gray silk dress with a matching gray hat and rubrum lily corsage.

BEFORE LEAVING for a Chicago honeymoon, the new Mrs. Burlingame changed to a gray two-tone suit with chartreuse blouse, gray hat and a green orchid pinned to her shoulder.

Upon their return, the couple will reside in Detroit.

Ruth Shain Class Program Announced

The Ruth Shain International Relations class will meet next Tuesday morning, January 30, at the Community House.

Mrs. M. S. Charlton of Rochester will give a resume of an early November speech given in Congress by Representative Dr. Walter H. Judd from Minneapolis, entitled "Autopsy on the Far East." Mrs. Henry M. Foley will review Eugene Lyons' letter, published in the New York Times, on our "Containment Policy."

All members of the class will study the first two chapters of their new headline series book entitled "Germany—Peace or Peril?" Mrs. Shain's class is open to anyone interested in the subjects under discussion.

* General display advertising deadline is 5 p.m. each Tuesday.

Boys Warned to Register Soon For YMCA Camps

It will be a case of "Sorry, we are all filled up" for many boys who fail to register for places in some of the YMCA camps.

Letters from the Birmingham branch of the Detroit YMCA indicate that Camp Nissokone at Decatur, Mich., is just about ready to hang out the shingle, "No Vacancies."

Only 50 places remain for the first four weeks of camp and 45 for the second period.

Boys in Birmingham and vicinity who have registered include Harry Alick, Henry Bartholomew, Richard Bragaw, John and Peter Hubert, Warren Hardy, Tom Sheehan, Jay and Dale Simons, Paul Garlick, and Charles and Paul Culp.

DOUGLAS SALISBURY will return to Nissokone as camp director and will bring with him many of the leaders of the past three years.

Cliff Durry, director of the title Y Camp Hays-Wang-Ha on Torch lake stated that only a few places remain for boys in the Parian road home of the bride for which Mrs. McKinney selected a silver blue and white silk print dress and jacket with white felt hat and corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a gray silk dress with a matching gray hat and rubrum lily corsage.

BEFORE LEAVING for a Chicago honeymoon, the new Mrs. Burlingame changed to a gray two-tone suit with chartreuse blouse, gray hat and a green orchid pinned to her shoulder.

Upon their return, the couple will reside in Detroit.

Ruth Shain Class Program Announced

The Ruth Shain International Relations class will meet next Tuesday morning, January 30, at the Community House.

Mrs. M. S. Charlton of Rochester will give a resume of an early November speech given in Congress by Representative Dr. Walter H. Judd from Minneapolis, entitled "Autopsy on the Far East." Mrs. Henry M. Foley will review Eugene Lyons' letter, published in the New York Times, on our "Containment Policy."

All members of the class will study the first two chapters of their new headline series book entitled "Germany—Peace or Peril?" Mrs. Shain's class is open to anyone interested in the subjects under discussion.

* General display advertising deadline is 5 p.m. each Tuesday.

Troy Dad's Club Donates Money for Athletic Field

The Troy township Dad's club has donated $1,000 to the fund for a lighted athletic field, which will eventually be located behind the new Troy High school building, now under construction.

James Gamble, 2800 Spencer, Troy township, president of the group said that the club previously donated $400 toward this project, bringing its total donations for 1940 to $1,400.

The Dad's club is now conducting a drive in the township to raise $5,000 which must be raised to complete the project.

"THE CLUB WILL MEET Thursday, Jan. 25, at the Log Cabin school at 7:30 p.m. Gamble said that anyone interested in joining the group, or its ladies' auxiliary, can obtain information by contacting him at his home.

The purpose of the organization is to foster and supervise organized games and recreational activities, within the area of the Troy consolidated school district, for youth up to the ages of 18.

The club is sponsoring a dance Friday, Jan. 26 at 9 p.m. at May's barn, Rochester road near 10 Mile. The Melody Masters will furnish music for variety dances and tickets will be available at the door. Gamble said the public is invited.

Local Gra-Y Groups To See Travel Films

Birmingham Gra-Y Clubs will see the new Ford Motor Co. travelogue of Yellowstone Park as part of their club meetings this week.

A discussion and film on the habitat of seals will occupy most of the meeting time. Most groups will continue to paint their Indianhead paper weights while there will work on plaster casts.

* General display advertising deadline is 5 p.m. each Tuesday.

CUB SCOUTS

PIERCE PACK

Among the den mothers who are taking the six weeks training course in Royal Oak are Mrs. Frank Murphy, Mrs. Donald Fisk, Mrs. Norman Mack, Mrs. George Marlin, Mrs. Melvin Uppinger, Mrs. M. W. Birchard, Mrs. Edward Hanz, Mrs. Shirley Bowen, Mrs. Edward Cosner, Mrs. John Falberg, Mrs. M. C. Brookings, Mrs. W. C. Whitman, Mrs. Ray Demers, Mrs. Charles LaSalle, Mrs. William Ploch, Mrs. Hugh Bailey and Mrs. William Davies.

Dens I and VII presented skits at the pack meeting last week. A cabinet award was made to George Bue, who has graduated from Cubdom into a Boy Scout troop.

Baldwin Students on Television Program

Four Baldwin high school students presented a modern dance on the "Starlit Stairway" program on WXVZ-TV, Sunday at 9 p.m.

Elizabeth Kurtz prepared the choreography and directed the group. She was assisted by Carol Hoghead, Sue Swartz and Bruce Carlie. Their act was previously presented for the high school variety show last fall.

Miss Margaret Kirk is their dance instructor.

Local Jaycees Present 'Y' With Check for $500

A check for $500 was presented by the Birmingham junior chamber of commerce Wednesday evening, Jan. 24, to Lynn Russell assistant general secretary of the Detroit YMCA. The money will be used to start toward a temporary 'Y' building on Lincoln avenue.

The presentation was made by the Jaycees president and vice president, James Cole and Harold Kaldreich at the Carousel.

The local 'Y' took title to a tract of land 240'x278' on Lincoln at Edgewood last summer.

It is now trying to raise funds through members and interested friends for the erection of a temporary building to house its offices and equipment until the national emergency cases up, and frees much needed building equipment for a permanent structure.

IN ACCEPTING the gift, Russell stated, "It is our hope that not many years will pass before Birmingham has a permanent office with full physical facilities and appointments to house the 'Y' program."

"With the tremendous population growth of Birmingham and its environs, the need for additional space for programs among youth and young people is greatly accentuated."

Speaker of the evening was Herbert H. Gardner, Sr., president of the Birmingham National Bank, who spoke on "Economics."

REGISTRATION NOTICE

For the United Primary Election—February 19, 1951.

Michigan Elector of the Township of Southfield, County of Oakland.

Notice is hereby given, that I will be at Southfield Town Hall, 26000 Herzog Rd. for the purpose of receiving names of my legal voters not already registered in said Township on the following dates:

January 29, 1951—8 AM-3 PM
February 5, 1951—8 AM-3 PM
February 12, 1951—8 AM-3 PM

FANNIE ADAMS
Township Clerk.

Bride's Home Is Nuptial Setting

The former Margaret Corlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corlett, became the bride of John B. Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Higgins of Bloomfield Hills, on December 31st.

The nuptial ceremony took place in the home of the bride's parents in River Forest, Ill., with a reception following there.

The couple, who left for Bermuda following their wedding, will be at home in Haddonfield, New Jersey after the first of February.

'Y' Varsity Cage Team Wins First Game of Season

Birmingham YMCA Men's Varsity team racked up its first victory of the season with a 42-26 win over the Hannan 'Y' of Detroit, Thursday, Jan. 18.

Playing a very slow offensive, the Dark Green of Birmingham went into a four point lead on baskets by Jim Anderson and Hoop Reynolds. Jim Kothe's two lay-up shots in the second eight minutes of play gave Birmingham a 15 to 14 lead at half time.

BIRMINGHAM CHANGED a fast-break, man-to-man offense in the fourth quarter and scored 22 points as it held Hannan 'Y' to 7.

Kothe's 13 points and Reynolds' 10 were high for Birmingham.

Anderson gave a good display of defensive play for Birmingham and sparked the Dark Green's play. The game marked Reynolds' last appearance of the season, as he left for military service Friday.

In the preliminary game, the Hannan Senior Boys 'Y' team defeated Birmingham senior boys 57-29. Jack Ashcraft scored 22 points for the visitors as they swept to their seventh straight win.

The loss was Birmingham's second in a row and gives them a record of six wins and two losses. John Burton netted 11 points to lead the locals in scoring.

Both teams face St. Antoine Thursday evening on the Detroit floor.

Transferred to California Field

MCCLELLAN AIR FORCE BASE, Calif.—Private Herbert R. Weisinger, son of Mrs. Martha Weisinger, 26041 Maple Lane, Franklin, Mich., has recently been transferred from Great Falls Air Force Base, Mont., to the Ferrying Squadron at McClellan Air Force Base, Sacramento, a vital link in the air supply line to the Far East.

Weisinger attended Baldwin High School in Birmingham and was employed as a mechanic by his entry into military service approximately three years ago.

Birmingham Junior 'Y' Squad Drops Game to Western

The Birmingham 'Y' junior boys lost their ninth game of the season as against one win, when a tall, rangy Western outfit defeated the locals 75 to 27 on the Detroit floor Saturday.

Phil Sawyer scored 24 points for the Maroon and Gray as Tom Stinson tossed in 9 points to pace the losers.

Birmingham 'Y' meets Downtown 'Y' at 1 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 27, on the Baptist Church gym floor.

Removal of Tree

Removal of a 17-inch wild cherry tree from in front of 608 West Lincoln was approved by the city commission at a public hearing Monday evening.

THE WHOLE SERENITY VALENTINE

They're getting them at

La Belles

137 WEST MAPLE

"It's from LaBelles"

A wedding gift from LaBelles means to men and women, the country over, something which is fine—something that has an intangible value over and beyond price, whether it be silver, china, crystal or other accessories to the good life.

And this is so because of our thought of you in our buying.

La Belles

137 W. MAPLE
Birmingham's Shop of Gifts, Books and Stationery

THE MOST FUN FOR THE LEAST MONEY

Attract useful birds to your yard with

- CRANBROOK MIXTURE
- REGULAR MIXTURE
- SUET CAKES
- PEANUTS FEEDERS

McClellan-Ball Co.
YARD SUPPLIES FARM KENNEL
Birmingham, Michigan
Midwest 7-4139 159 Broward St.

May I Ask You a Personal Question?

Are You Having Trouble With Your—

INCOME TAX?

LET ME HELP YOU
WALTER B. TATE

Farmily with the Internal Revenue Office
139 West Maple Street Phone MI 4-2620

For Genuine Loafing

Anywhere... Anytime

FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY

Genuine Ripons

For cozy comfort, there's nothing like a pair of Ripons—the most relaxing slippers ever designed! They snuggle the feet in soft, pure wool (or nylon), and padded glove leather soles cushion the step. Grand for loafing 'round the house, traveling, after a day outdoors, in the hotel, cabin, camp, etc. Choice of many new styles in beautiful colors and patterns. They're washable!

$2.50 AND $2.95

Mulholland's Department Men's & Boys'

MONTH-END A KAY COOLEY, Inc.

1/2 off ON

A GROUP of QUILTED and SATIN ROBES
A GROUP of SKIRTS
A GROUP of COATS
A GROUP of SUITS Rayon and Gabardine
A GROUP of BLOUSES
A GROUP of T SHIRTS

190 W. Maple Birmingham
Kay Cooley Inc.
Midwest 4-7744

Spring begins with a beautiful suit

Sketched: Bolero suit in Miron worsted checkerboard checks—an arch of buttons at the hip, another across the shoulder. Navy, brown or gray, in -misses' sizes, 78-95.

From an exciting collection of 1951 suits... naturally at

Himmelhoch's

Birmingham store open Friday 9:30 to 9 p.m. Other days, 9:30 to 5:30.