

Cynthia Hadley Becomes Bride of Lt. Frank Blake

Miss Cynthia Hadley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton F. Hadley of Warwick drive in Beverly Hills, became the bride of Lieutenant Frank Nelson Blake, USAF,

MRS. FRANK BLAKE

in a four-thirty afternoon ceremony on December 23. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blake of Lansing. Rev. George Clark read the informal nuptial rites at Christ Church Cranbrook. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, selected for the occasion a light beige wool crepe suit, an ice blue hat and brown accessories. Her flowers were small brown orchids. Miss Alison Hadley assisted her sister as maid of honor. She wore a darker beige suit accented by a dark brown velvet hat and brown orchids. A cousin of the bridegroom, Ray Blake of Holt, Mich., served as best man. Following the ceremony, the couple received their guests at the Fox and Hounds Inn. The newlyweds are making their home in San Antonio, Texas, where Lieutenant Blake is stationed with the Army Air Force at Randolph Field.

Ruth Shain Class To Resume Meetings

The Ruth Shain International Relations classes will re-open on Tuesday, January 9, at 10 a.m. in the Community House. The class will continue in these weekly sessions until the first of May, inasmuch as there is no definite break for quarters or semesters, the study will be resumed with a quick general analysis of America's position in areas that are now most challenged. This review will be given by the class leader, Mrs. Shain.

SUCCESSING CLASSES will have reports upon such topics as will furnish needed background for the current world scene. Although each class meeting is a unit in itself, best advantage will be gained by being present every Tuesday.

These class meetings are open to everyone. There are no qualifications except an interest in the class subject.

Woman's Club Will Hold Meeting Jan. 9

The Birmingham Woman's club will meet on January 9 at 1:30 p.m. in the Baldwin Library. Mrs. H. B. Sanderson will present the "afternoon's program," "Monologues and Personalities." Mrs. Floyd Franklin will be chairman of the day.

The tea committee for this date includes Mrs. Glenn Coley, Mrs. Orren L. Andrews, Mrs. John E. Marts, Mrs. Emerson Brown and Mrs. H. H. Kendall.
