CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"God" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, January 7.
The "Bible Test" (Timothy 1:17) is: "Now unto the King eternal, immortal, and invisible, the only God, we do adore as ever and ever."
And the Bible lesson is the passage, (Ez. 20:1-3): "And God spake all these words unto me, saying, 'The house of Israel, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, they shall have no other gods before me.'"
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science Bible, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary C. H. Johnson, Editor, under the following (p. 154): "The divine Principle is the First Cause, the Father, the Source of being, by which man demonstrates health, holiness, and life-eternity."

Baptist Church Adds New Sunday Feature To Regular Program
A new feature has been added to the Sunday program of the First Baptist church. A "Fireside Vespers" will be held each Sunday evening from 7:30 to 8:30 in the church parlors.
"Informality will be the keynote of the service," the pastor, the Rev. Emil Kottis, said. "The biblical explications will be directly related to vital religious experiences and spiritual problems of the day. The informality of the service will give an opportunity for questions and comments from those attending."
The pastor also announced that his church would take part in the annual denominational program called "Printed Page Evangelism." A series of tracts have been prepared by the American Baptist convention, to be distributed in Baptist churches throughout the month of January.
"Pastors will correlate their sermons to the theme established," he said.

Lutheran Council Will Install 1951 Officers On Sunday
