

Allowing one's mind to become saturated with bitterness and resentment toward another is like inviting your body to absorb a terrible illness; since no one wants to be sick in body, why not adopt the same attitude toward protection of the mind?

"THE STERLING STORE OF BIRMINGHAM"

"THAT TOOK A LOT OF LICKING!" Russell McBride, owner of Russell's hardware, looks with amazement at the number of precancelled one-cent stamps pasted on two packages received at his office last week. The smaller package was almost completely covered with stamps, with one side of the larger package being nearly solid with them. Many of the stamps had fallen off since leaving the shipping point, Sausalito, Calif. McBride said somewhere around 1,000 stamps were needed for both parcels.

FRANKLIN NEWS
By ANGELA DADSON
MAYFAIR 6-2491

In England
Now in England visiting relatives and old acquaintances is Mrs. Bert Elliot Briarcliff road, who left June 21 by plane for London. With her is her four-year-old son Michael.

Her trip, expected to last six weeks was to include some time at Newcastle and visits with the headmistress of and former roommates at Tankerton college, with whom she has corresponded frequently since leaving England in 1931 to live in the United States.

En Route to Africa
Shirley Smith, who is an employee of the U. S. Information service, and who has made her home for some time with her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Duane Lurkins, Franklin Park drive, left recently for British East Africa.

She was to fly to Lisbon to spend a weekend there and then travel on to Tangier, Morocco, to serve temporarily with the Information service there for two or three months. Her final destination was to be Nairobi, Kenya, a British protectorate in E. Africa, where she will be permanently stationed.

Shirley is a graduate of Baldwin High and George Washington university at Washington, D. C. She attended the University of London in England last year on a scholarship awarded by the Kappa Kappa Gamma chapter at George Washington university.

Returns to Franklin
Harry Barr, who was assigned to the General Motors tank plant the Upper Peninsula, visiting Mrs. Hanson's relatives at Ironwood and Hanson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Titus Peterson at Stambaugh.

The Kenneth Nichols, son of Michael and Nichols' father, Arthur Nichols of Washington, D. C. are vacationing in the West, with holiday headquarters at Yellowstone Park and Teton Valley, Wyoming.

Galskill Barr, son of the Harry Barrs, Jack Graham, son of the John C. Grahams, and David Campbell, son of the Dudley Campbells, are spending their vacations at B-A Ranch in Wyoming. It is a cattle ranch, where the boys will have a part in ranch operations for the summer.

David Bingham spent a recent week visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tremblay, at Marquette, Mich. His plane was grounded at Escanaba, and he was forced to complete the trip by bus. One highlight of his visit was a ride in the cab of a locomotive.

George Ziegelbauer, son of the Paul Ziegelbauers and a student at Lawrence Tech, is spending the summer at home. His brother John is a counselor at YMCA Camp Mah-N-Gah-See at Hale, Mich.

The Wendell Browns and daughters Mary and Barbara have returned to their Ardmore road home from a vacation in northern Michigan. They spent part of the time at Escanaba the balance at a cottage on Mullet Lake.
