Stanley-Boyd Rites Read In Christ Church

Christ Church Evening was the setting Monday evening of the wedding of Sue Ann Boyd and Leonard Stanley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Boyd of 91 Colorado, Highland Park. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stanley of Ferndale.

Rev. Pearson read the 8 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

White nylon tulle over white crepe fashioned the ballerina skirt of the bride gown. The long sleeves of illusion were delicately gathered into the sweetheart neckline of the embroidered lace bodice. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a tiny cloche of lace. White roses and orchids went into her bouquet.

Mrs. Edward Molianen served her sister as matron of honor, in a mint green ballerina gown with nylon tulle skirt and bodice of lace. She wore lace mitts and a little poke bonnet. She carried an old fashioned fan covered with white roses.

Mrs. Sam Smoley, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Merton Hasse another sister were bridesmaids. Young Sylvia Boyd was her sister's junior bridesmaid. Their gowns were styled identically to the honor matron's in rose and their old fashioned fans were covered with pink roses.

Auxiliary To Amvets Post 161 Elects Officers

At the regular meeting of Amvets Post 161 Auxiliary, Mrs. Robert Harrell, member of Bennett-Olsen Post 113 Auxiliary presented president Mrs. Gladys Bennett with a gavel.

Mrs. Peg Russell was introduced as a prospective member and guest. Mrs. Jean Ramonien accepted the appointment of temporary parliamentarian to be in charge of the by-laws committee and draw up the by-laws to govern this Auxiliary. Mrs. Marian Madlock, absent due to recent influenza, was elected parliamentarian.

A letter from Mrs. Mildred Bigger, president of Jimmy Day Post 12 Amvets Auxiliary, was read regarding an invitation from them to join a home nursing course which will start in the fall. All members who are interested are urged to contact Mrs. Mildred Schilling for registration.

Mrs. Doris Bays was appointed chairman, Mrs. Helen Sweet, to be in charge of securing prices and ideas for concessionaire sales for the Amvets Post 161 Rodeo to be held August 26 at Morey's rodeo grounds.

AUGUST 18 IS THE date selected by Joyce Ann Smith for her marriage to Donald Ralph Kingdon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Kingdon, 31760 Glencoe drive. The bride elect who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith of Ann Arbor attended Ann Arbor high school and graduated this month from Marry School of Nursing, Detroit. Donald will graduate in August from the University of Michigan's school of Business Administration.

Auxiliary pins are to be secured from Jimmy Day Post 12 Amvets Auxiliary for purchase by all members to Post 161 Auxiliary. Flower fund was established for our Auxiliary members only and possibly for small children if not taken care of otherwise.

All official documents such as dues remittance forms, charter application, etc. are to be forwarded to this week by proper state and national officers so that this newly organized Auxiliary may be officially recognized for the State Convention to be held June 20-21-22 at Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Mrs. Betty Wallace was elected delegate and Mrs. Florence Yungk, alternate, for the convention.

Next meeting of Auxiliary to be held July 26 at Greater Beneficial Union Hall and all members are urged to bring used clothing in clean and good condition for mailing to the needy in Korea. Mrs. Helen Gallardo as welfare chairman, is in charge of collections.

The meeting was adjourned to hear the speaker for the Amvets Post 161, Mr. William Dobbs, Training Service Officer, State of Michigan.

MRS. LEONARD STANLEY

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

New York was the newlyweds' destination when they departed on their honeymoon. They plan to return in two weeks, via Mackinaw Island. Mrs. Stanley was wearing a beige lined suit to which she added the orchids from her bouquet. Her accessories were beige and brown.

A FALL WEDDING is being planned by Helen Mack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ross Mack, 1160 Lake Park drive, and L. Ray Vahue son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Vahue of Amarillo, Tex., whose engagement is announced by her parents. Helen graduated from Bennett Junior college and University of Colorado, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. She is a provisional member of the Junior League. Her fiance is a graduate of University of Colorado and member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.
