Service doesn't keep "office hours"

CHARLES TITUS has lived in Mt. Clemens thirty years, most of that time as Michigan Bell's Plant Chief. That's a lot of service to one company, and to one community. But, as his fellow citizens know it into half the story.

After hours: Charles, Titus finds time-or maker time-to help with a recreational and educational program at the Sigma Gamma Hosbital School for Compiled Children. In 1943, Mr. Titus helped organize the Mr. Clemen's Community Chest-just one of his many wartime activities. The hist chair-man of the Mr. Clemen's Regression Commission, he likat pres-ent Secretary of the city's Planning Commission.

n many ways his community profits from the of Michigan Bell's Mt. Clemens Plant Chief.
