Maybe It's Not "Gracious Living" But It's a Darned Nice House

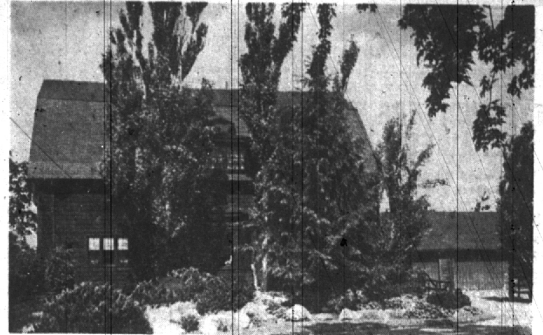

We like it here... we're sorry we have to move to Chicago and sell the house. It's newish—built in 1948, and we fixed it up to live in and enjoy.

We've got the best living porch you ever saw, 3 bedrooms, and the right amount of room for a middle-sized family. Fine neighbors—the kind that will lend you an egg or a cup of sugar, but leave you alone when you've got a headache.

Nice house, nice street, nice part of town. Too bad we've got to sell it. We think it's worth $21,500.
