THE SMILES ON THE FACES of the Morell Marcans and daughters Carol and Linda, 735 Shirley drive, are not just for the benefit of the photographer. They were very much pleased when the Matson Lines' luxury liner, Lurline, finally weighed anchor June 23. They were scheduled to leave three days earlier but had to wait until a strike of the radio men aboard the liner was settled. Their trip from Detroit to San Francisco was delayed due to an airline strike.

Marionettes By Puppeteers Shown Outstate

Marionettes made by members of the Birmingham Puppeteers of America A.A.P.W. are receiving prominence in two different parts of the country. Last week they were exhibited at the National Festival of the Puppeteers of America at Western College, Oxford, Ohio.

In mid-July The University of Minnesota is cooperating with the Puppeteers of America in presenting this special program and exhibits.

Mrs. Calvin Dennison attended the festival along with others from Michigan. The Puppeteers of America organization was originally founded by the late Paul McPherson of Birmingham.

Now these marionettes are being taken to Minneapolis to be displayed at the University of Minnesota's Institute of Puppetry.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Chappell of 925 Larchlea. They moved here June 13 from Dearborn. The Chappells have two children, Harold and Carolyn. Mr. Chappell is employed by the Ring Screw company as factory manager.
