BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

Philatelists face a field day with their collection of the Birmingham 1951 stamps. The first issued last night is a three-cent stamp commemorating the final production of the U.S. airmail rate. Veterans of the great stamp issue in sheets of six. The six-cent issue for three cents is the Nevada commemorative issue, marking the 100th anniversary of the admission of that territory to the United States. The final of the great local interest is the "Cavalier" stamp being issued through the Detroit post office on July 21. This will commemorate the 100th anniversary of the battle of the Armistice de Mobile Canal at Detroit. Issued in sheets of six, the "Cavalier" stamp will depict the battle scene. It is one of the most colorful and interesting in the series.

While cruising around town this morning, the police were surprised to find with the national highway sign, a "ONE WAY" sign pointing in the wrong direction. The sign was found on the corner of 12th and 13th streets, which make a very interesting sight.

Spectators at the Little League games were the only persons who saw the new cream from the new plant that will be built. Among the children and adults crowded around the new plant, which is often between some of the young players' homes.

Dexter H. Craig, a University of Texas graduate, student in geology, is spending the summer mapping the Dutch Basin in West Texas. The mapping, which will result in a report on the geology of the basin, is part of a project of the U.S. Geological Survey. He is the son of Mr. Marion H. Craig, 1001 Glenwood.

A very professional-like miniature golf course has been opened at the home of 202 Park, and is attracting a great deal of interest from the neighborhood. The course is the work of Mr. John H. Craig, 1001 Glenwood.
