Dance Students Present Recital Of Modern Dance

The students of Marion Nevill Kirk will present a program of Modern Dance for their parents and friends on Saturday night, June 16, at the Birmingham Community House.

The program will consist of two parts. The first half will be a showing of children's techniques in which the following students will take part, ages from five to nine: Margaret Hilliers, Sandra Haack, Gail Atkin, Merrily Handren, Patty Flinn, Kitty Taylor, Kaye Tibbitts, Alison Wardson, Nancy Heller, Priscilla Thompson, and Margaret Wilson.

THE SECOND half of the program will be danced by a group of high school students who have been studying under Miss Kirk for the past year or two. The following students are in this group: Bruce Carlisle, Gordon Eddine, Pat Hogan, Carol Hogshead, Judy Hallsbeck, Alice Kent, Elizabeth Kurtz, Harvey Meyer, Barbara Milb, Alog Novitsky, Winifred Roemich, Charlotte Schwimmer, and Sue Swartz. For them this dance recital brings to a close a year of much dance activity.

Early in May they presented a program of dance for the Convention of Educational Buyers at the Rackham Building in Detroit. They also took part in The Michigan dance festival along with other modern dance groups from University of Michigan, Wayne University and Michigan State College. On May 29, they joined with Miss Kirk's other modern dance classes at Royal Oak high school for a dance symposium. All three groups participated in the program with about 65 students altogether. It was presented first at the Royal Oak high school and then a week later at Lincoln high school.

On next Saturday's program

they will give a technique demonstration and then a variety of dances, some with choreography by Miss Kirk and some with choreography by individual students.

At the close of the performance James Bickford and Mrs. Robert Thompson will preside at the punch table.
