

Bones-Margason Nuptials Read Saturday Afternoon

The University Presbyterian Church of West Lafayette, Ind. was the scene Saturday, June 3 of the 4:30 wedding that united in marriage, Joyce Margason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Reese Margason of West Lafayette, Ind. to William L. Bones, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bones of Northport.

Rev. H. Richard Rasmussen performed the ceremony before an audience of about 100 guests. The bride wore a white gown of chantilly lace, with a high neck and small collar, long sleeves and a slight sweeping train. Her veil of net was of finger tip length. She carried a bouquet of white spray-orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Dollar for Dollar you can't beat a Pontiac

A Beautiful Long-Time Investment!

We admit that one of the very important attractions of the new Silver Streak Pontiac is its captivating appearance. Nearly anyone says it is a really beautiful car. But if Pontiac didn't have something in addition to its beauty, it couldn't possibly be in such tremendous demand today. That additional something is Pontiac's famous dependability. Talk to any Pontiac owner in town and you'll hear a wonderful story of months and years and thousands of miles of enjoyable driving with a minimum of routine service attention.

When you add to the pride of driving the most beautiful thing on wheels the never-ending pleasure of its performance and dependability—plus the knowledge that Pontiac is outstanding as a used car value—then will you realize that, Dollar for Dollar You Can't Beat a Pontiac—a beautiful, long-time investment! Come in and get the facts.
