BARNUM
JUNIOR HIGH
NEWS

Radio Workshop is presenting a talent show for the final broadcast of the school year. It is made up of Barnum students and will be given Thursday, June 14, at 10:45 over station WCAR. Pontiac.

Program will consist of Boys' Quartet of Bob Barnes, Roger Johnson, John Hayes, John H. Hart singing "Coney Island Baby" and "Robert E. Lee"; Trumpet Trio, John Thompson, Ed Nordstrom, Jerry Mills doing "Holiday"; Girls' Quartet: Carol Negri, Sandra Overgard, Patty Nyberg, Beverly Negri singing "Down in the Valley" and "Oh tell me Why"; Soloist: Judy Reynolds doing "Molotogann" on the piano; Judy Boyd, Chonin on the piano; Helen Moley, "It's a Lovely Day"; vocal; Pat Andrus, "How High the Moon"; vocal; Dave Gilboas is master of ceremonies.

ON TUESDAY MORNING June 5, girls of the second semester homemaker and sewing class presented a program for their mothers. They modeled the clothes they had made for their spring wardrobes. Costume consisted of sport wear, of shorts and blouses, beach robes and swim suits.

THE RADIO WORKSHOP will continue on through the summer as part of the Birmingham Summer recreation program. Mrs. Mollie Clark, who has been Director of Radio for the Birmingham Schools during the past year will be in charge of the summer activity. She plans lighter, less serious program for these two months, feeling that the work should be recreational as well as instructional.

Programs will be broadcast over station WCAR Pontiac at 10:45 every Thursday morning beginning July 5 and continuing through August 16.

Students who will serve as her assistants for the summer are Kitty Bell, Mary Jane Clark, Dave Gibbons, and Bob Ketchum. All Birmingham boys and girls in junior or senior high school are eligible for this activity.

THE YOUNGEST CLUB at Barnum, the Ceramic club, although a mere two months old, has had a successful beginning and has plans for a busy year next year. There have been six meetings and two field trips, one to Marshall-Fredericks Studio where sculpture in the making was keenly observed. The second trip was to Cranbrook Art Museum where "Art Pottery" and "Appreciation for Art" was discussed. Plans for the club include field trips to create interest in "Art Pottery" to learn how it is done so that members can pursue their hobby at home and to learn what is being done by outstanding craftsmen.

The schedule for final examinations will be as follows: June 18, 8:30-5:30 homeroom period; 5:30-10, 1st period; classes; 10:10-10:40, 2nd period; classes; 11:40-12:45 noon hour; 12:45-1, homeroom; 1-2:30, seventh period classes.

June 19, regular Tuesday schedule: 8:30-10, 1st period; classes; 10:10-10:40, 2nd period; classes; 11:40-12:45 noon hour; 12:45-1, homeroom; 1-2:30 sixth period.

BARNUM'S NINTH GRADE baseball team finished in a tie for second place in the Little Oak League. The team won its last three games, scoring 53 runs, defeating Hazel Park 7-3, Cranbrook 15-2, and Royal Oak 11-6. Mike Groves and Gerald Wedge shared pitching duties while Gerald Beck and Mike O'Connor handled catching assignments. Coach Fred Gibson said the team made steady improvements as the season progressed and finished playing a good brand of baseball. It began to hit, run, and field as a unit, working sacrifice and squeeze bunts to advance and score runners with regularity. Mike O'Connor was the leading hitter with a batting average of .526. Mike Groves allowed only hits in the last 12 innings he worked.

AFTER A WEEK of campaigning with banners and colorful posters decorating the halls, the student council elections were held last Thursday. Results were president, Bill Dove; Vice-president, Sid Fawcett; secretary, Helen Colwell; and treasurer, Don Cochran.

The Barnum girls are still continuing their tennis tournament. Winners of the second round are Elizabeth Onderdonk, Maribel Rummel, Joan Fairbairn, Joanne Wagner, Nancy Carlisle, and Sally Wootton. In the third round Onderdonk won over Fairbairn 6-4, and Wootton won over Carlisle 6-2. In the doubles tournament the three winning couples are Judy Millman and Martha Sharples, eighth grade; Thomas Beck, Pat Palmer and Sally Kelly, and Joanne Wagner and Shirley Mitchell. In its annual presentation assembly, the Barnum chapter of the National Junior Honor society welcomed 30 new members into its ranks. Following an opening prayer by Rev. Glen Harris, president John Hubert introduced five of the members who gave brief talks on the five qualifications for Honor Society membership. Joan Gasoway spoke on scholarship; Thor Halvorson, leadership; Adelle Toyfer, character; Judy Millman, citizenship; and Janice Cooper, service. Ethel Diller reviewed the history of the Honor Society.

Finally, the following new members were named: ninth grade—Martin Abbrecht, Pat Boote, Sarah Cowell, Susan Doherty; Cherry Harris, Russell Hibbard, Patty Hummel, Patty Jackson, Howard Johnson, Cheryl Mickelson, Dorothy Ojala, Ann Parnie, Martha Sharples, Carolyn Shattuck, Barbara Alkens. Eighth grade: Thomas Beck, Nancy Brown, Bill Dove, Ruth Hibbard, Peter Kass, Bob Ketchum, Hester Lewis, Jim Mosby, Darlene Pollack, Bruce Scott, Dick Silbar, Joan Sweeding, Stanley Thompson, Jerry White.
