Openers Tee Off Thursday in 'Open'

Top Golfers Test Revamped Course At Oakland Hills

When Iverson Martin, Eddie Susalla and Toby Lyons tee off at 8 a.m. Thursday, June 14, the 51st United States Golf Association National Open Championship will get underway at Oakland Hills Country Club, Lahser and West Maple.

TOP-FLIGHT golfers from almost every state in the union will compete in the three day event. The 50 lowest scorers and anything for 50th place for the first 36 holes will be eligible to continue playing Saturday, June 16.

Here Are Some Suggestions for Open Spectators

- 1. In a tournament as important as the National Open, conduct of spectators is a vital factor. The slightest lapse in cooperation of the crowd may mean the difference between the contestants winning and losing the coveted championship.

Parking Available For 5500 Cars During Tourney

Parking accommodations for approximately 5500 cars will be provided for the National Open golf tournament this week, according to George E. Markley, vice-chairman of the parking committee.

IN ADDITION, there will be lots for Oakland Hills Country Club members in the North Hill golf club parking area at the first fairway by the 16th and 17th holes.
