Hello!
 Twenty neighbors and their children gave a surprise party for Mrs. William Colman Thursday afternoon at the clubhouse at Beach No. 2. It was a "get-acquainted" and "welcoming" party for her as she is living at the clubhouse for the summer.

Birthday Parties
 Cleve King celebrated his ninth birthday with a party for 30 children and his teacher, Miss Nora Peasly, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Matt Letts of Chassell, Mich., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Vincent Alaim. About 30 relatives joined her at Beach No. 1 for a picnic for her birthday last Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Dingwall has been entertaining her former roommate Vera Hillman of Oklahoma City, Okla., this week. They have been to Canada, Greenfield Village, Belle Isle, Bohlo, the Detroit Zoo and other places of interest. Mrs. James Roberts accompanied them on several of their excursions.

New Neighbor
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blanton and four sons have moved into their new home on Walnut Lake Road. Blanton is with the Ford Motor Company. They moved here from Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Samokh have moved into their new home on Langham. He is with the Ford Motor Company in Highland Park. They formerly lived in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. Edward Nighthingale and Mrs. Harry Maves gave a going-away breakfast party for Mrs. William Sinclair last week. The Sinclairs and their son Dennis moved Saturday to their new home on Wolverine Lake.

the Messengers concert and to spend the night with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beck.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morton and Jackie Reynolds visited relatives in Tennessee last weekend.

Cub Scout Notes
 Cub dens had a final picnic at Beach No. 1 Saturday afternoon. The boys received their awards and played games.

Mel Jozita, den dad for Den 1, took the boys on a Sunday morning cook-out recently. The boys fixed "eggs in a poke" in the frying pans which they had made from tin cans.

Mr. C. M. Heller gave a "come-as-you-are" breakfast last Thursday to raise money for Cub Scout equipment.

Mr. Robert Morris gave a bridge party for the benefit of the Cub, also.

Brownies and Girl Scouts
 The Brownies of Troop 25 followed trail signs which led to the home of Mrs. John Woodman at their meeting Monday. They practiced their dance for the fly-up picnic. Mrs. Emmett Hampton assisted the leaders and Mrs. Woodman. Peggy Smet was hostess for the day.

Mrs. William Noch visited Troop 58 and helmed the girls pass their health and safety requirements for their second class badge. Troop 9 joined them later at the home of Mrs. Richard McKay for a rehearsal of the Swedish dances they performed at the school assembly Friday.

Ellen Re, Norma Jean Sinclair, Beatrice Snyder of Troop 32 and Beverly Noch of Troop 42 received their first class badges in the Girl Scout court of award Wednesday night. Beverly honored the fathers with a recitation at the father and son banquet last week.

Louisa Roberts of Troop 32 received her second class award as did all the girls of Troop 58. Dawn Lee Kames, Rosiland Langham, Pamela Parkins, Mary Roberts, Barbara Shank, Barbara Sinclair, Louise Gale Stevens and Judy Sundberg.
