Chantilly Lace Fashions Gown Of Saturday Bride

White chantilly lace over satin was selected by Jean Viola Craig for her wedding Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. She spoke her marriage vows to Douglas Trevor Lewis in a double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mitchell Craig of 1547 Dorchester are the bride's parents and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gwynne Trevor Lewis of Oradell, N. J.

The bride's gown, fashioned with a high neckline and tiny scalloped collar of lace had long sleeves and a circular skirt with a moderate train. A cloche of satin covered with matching lace, held her finger tip veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis and ivy.

MARION CRAIG was her sister's only attendant. She was dressed in imported white organza over taffeta with scalloped neckline and scallops down the front

Mrs. Douglas Trevor Lewis and Robert Ballard of Detroit were ushers.

Mrs. Craig wore for her daughter's wedding a suit of blue shantung. Her accessories were pink. Mrs. Lewis was dressed in a suit of violet taffeta. Her accessories were white.

For a honeymoon in Northern Michigan the bride was wearing a blue and white print suit and white accessories. When they return they will live in Birmingham.

MRS. JAMES H. HOFFMAN

Plum Hollow Club Reception Follows Morning Wedding

Plum Hollow Golf Club was the scene of the reception that followed the marriage of Clair Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Albert Nelson of Lake Annecis to James Henry Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Henry Hoffman of Prairie Avenue.

Rev. Francis T. Stank performed the 11:00 ceremony in St. Hugo of the Hills church, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride's gown, of white grosgrain taffeta, was made with a deep portrait neckline edged with small leaves embroidered in bugle beads. The sleeves were long and fitted, the skirt was full and the train was of circular design. A finger-tip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a Dutch cap of matching taffeta and was edged in leaves. Fleur d'amour centered with white crystals fashioned her bridal bouquet.

JANET NELSON, her sister's maid of honor wore an opera length frock of white dotted swiss over blue taffeta, which featured a high neckline, cap sleeves and a tie blue sash of blue taffeta. She wore a matching halo of horsehair braid and carried an arm bouquet of deep purple and yellow pansies.

Ann Brunner of Royal Oak was bridesmaid and 12 year old Judith Nelson, sister of the bride was junior bridesmaid. Their gowns, halos and bouquets were identical to the honor matrons.

Raymond Schneider, cousin of the bridegroom was best man. Carl Linder, Aston Weichman and William Nelson were ushers.

Mrs. Nelson wore to her daughter's wedding a shantung taffeta suit in a fawn shade. She wore a yellow flowered hat and pinned yellow cimbidium orchids to her pure. Mrs. Hoffman wore violet silk crepe with white accessories. Her flowers were pink rubrum lilies. For traveling to New York City and the New England States the bride wore a shantung suit in a warm shade, white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Informal Ceremony Joins Thomas Gill To Cass Lake Girl

At an informal ceremony held recently in the Methodist Parsonage in Keego Harbor, Sara Lynn Schaeffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde O. Schaeffer, of Cass Lake was married to George Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Gill, of 768 Emmons.

Rev. Eisel Stubbs officiated at the evening rites.

The bride wore a street length dress of white crepe, trimmed in lace. She wore a corsage of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Fred Best of Keego Harbor, the bride's matron of honor, was dressed in white pique and all white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

John Gill served his son as best man.

Following a short trip through northern Michigan the young couple will live at Cass Lake.

A reception was given in their honor on June 16, in the home of Mrs. Clyde O. Schaeffer, of Cass

Important Prelude to the WEDDING

HAVE YOU been invited to the wedding? You have? Just a word, then, about an important prelude. Before the strains of the wedding march, and the vows; before well-wishing relatives and friends joyously gather; before all this there is this important prelude!

It is the selection of a Gift which will best convey your wishes for supreme happiness to the bride and groom.

A Wedding Gift from LaBelles is that kind of Gift! It immediately becomes your assurance of quality, correctness, and that indefinable something which will mean lasting satisfaction. Yes, it will be a Gift quite apart from the ordinary.

Thus you can know, in advance, that it will gratefully be received and that you will be fondly remembered for having chosen well. Naturally, we will wrap it for you in the distinctive LaBelle way which will make it, even more, best say "Good Wishes" and "Congratulations".
