MRS. LEWIS HAACK

Lewis Haack Weds Marion Connolly In Noon Ceremony

On Saturday, June 16, Marion Jean Connolly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Connolly of Detroit, became the bride of Lewis Reynolds Haack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Haack of Birmingham, at St. Mary of Redford church. Rev. McQue solemnized the marriage at a nuptial high mass.

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of candlelight satin with net skirt. This was delicately complemented by a redingote of chantilly lace with mandarin collar and long, fitted sleeves. Her candle-light illusion veil was held in place by a close fitted cap of satin and chantilly lace. She carried a white prayerbook and an orchid.

Ella May Connolly, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mary Ellen Haack, sister of the bridegroom, and Elaine Connolly, the bride's cousin, were bridesmaids.

The girls wore full length gowns of eyelid Swiss organza over aqua satin. Over the strapless gowns, they wore small pyramid eyelid boleros. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of white daisies while the bridesmaids carried yellow daisies. The head pieces were daisy eyelid bands over crepelets of aqua veiling.

FIVE-YEAR-OLD Tara O'Connor, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was of aqua organza over satin, tied with an organza sash.

Howard McIntee, former classmate of the groom at Michigan State College was best man. Jack Bennett and Al Larson acted as ushers.

Mrs. Connolly wore a suave, full-length crepe dress. Her cloche hat was dotted with rhinestones and violets and was trimmed with soft veiling. She wore a purple orchid.

The groom's mother was dressed in a floor-length dress of gray crepe. She wore a hat of delicate pink and matching gloves. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bridal party had breakfast at Botsford Inn. An afternoon reception at the Lee Plaza hotel followed. The newlyweds will take a trip through the western states for their honeymoon. They will make their home in Oklahoma City, Okla.
