

Double Ring Ceremony Read In Bushnell Church

Before an altar decorated with white gladioli and mums, Rev. Roger Eddy Treat read the double ring ceremony that united Carol Ann Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hoffman, of Piedmont avenue, Detroit, to

She wore a gown of lavender organdy with a cape. The pendant and hoop skirt were of embroidered organdy. She wore a halo of lavender organdy with yellow daisies. Her bouquet was a slight colonial design of yellow and white daisies and ivy.

The bridesmaids, Sally Maselink of Detroit, Dorothy Jend of Detroit, Patricia Johnson of Northville and Joyce Phillips of Big Rapids wore gowns styled like the honor matron's. Two of the girls' gowns were pale yellow and the other two were pale green. Their flowers were the same. The Misses Jend, Johnson and Phillips were sorority sisters and classmates of the bride, at Flint College.

Ray C. Mohr, Jr., of Flint was best man, Harold E. Stevens, William Carson the bridegroom's brother, Kirk Marshall of Richmond, Mich., Richard Apple of Brookfield, Ill. and David Wilcox of Detroit were ushers.

The reception followed the ceremony at Fellowship Hall in the church.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of grey lace and crepe, a tiny veil trimmed with mauve velvet and an orchid.

Mrs. Carson wore a gown of aqua lace and crepe with a hat of veiling to match. Her flowers were tea roses.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Carson left for a honeymoon trip to Lakeland, Fla., and Chicago, Ill. The bride was wearing a lime check summer suit and all yellow accessories. When they return they will reside in Detroit.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, birthdays, parties are all news—the society editor about them.

MRS. JAMES J. CARSON

James Jay Carson son of Mr. and Mrs. James Karl Carson of York-shire road.

For the 7:30 candlelight service in Bushnell Congregational church, the bride chose a gown of white embroidered Swiss organdy. The bodice fastened up the front to a tiny collar. The long sleeves ended in points over the wrists. The three tiered skirt fell full over a hoop. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of matching embroidered organdy. Her colonial bouquet was of stephanotis and fleur d'amour.

DONNA JANE HOFFMAN, was her sister's maid of honor.

Luncheon Parties Precede Wedding Of Joan Sappington

Miss Judith Sappington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington of Arlington drive, arrived home from New York Monday morning in order to be here for the pre-nuptial parties in honor of her sister, Joan, who is to be married to William Miles Goodrich, of East Orange, New Jersey, at Lake Church at Cranbrook, Cranbrook on Saturday, June 30. Mrs. Thomas H. Adams entertained at luncheon in her Puritan road home on Monday afternoon, in honor of Miss Sappington.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner on June 29 at Pine Lake Country Club.

Mrs. C. O. Sappington of Chicago, sister of Mr. Sappington, arrived Tuesday to be their guests till after the wedding.

Beverly Ruth Cunningham Wed In Holy Name Ceremony

Holy Name Church was the scene of the 10 o'clock ceremony that united Beverly Ruth Cunningham to John Francis Riordan II, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Oraldo Cunningham of Balmoral drive are the parents of the bride and the John Francis Riordan of Oak Park, Ill. are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride's gown of white, chantilly lace was fashioned with a French illusion was attached to an ornamental of lace and seed pearls. She carried a Hans ivy bouquet.

Barbara Luke of Detroit was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Peterson of Oxford, Mich. and Barbara Newell of Detroit. They were gowned identically in ballarina length gowns of white organdy. Their linen shoes were soft green as were the velvet ribbons on their white horse hair picture hats. They too, carried Hans ivy bouquets.

Mrs. John F. Riordan, II

sories to match, and white orchids. Following a motor trip through the west the young couple will drive to San Antonio, Tex. where the bridegroom will enter the Air Force at Lackland Field, Tex.

Among the out of town guests who attended were friends from Natchez, Miss., Boston, Mass., Chicago, Ill., Flint, Mich., Tucson, Ariz. and Oak Park, Ill.

WILLIAM RIORDAN served his brother as best man. The ushers were George Riordan, another brother from Oak Park, Ill. and Richard Lee Cunningham, the bride's brother.

For the afternoon reception held at Birmingham Country club, Mrs. Cunningham chose a dress of mauve lace and matching accessories. Her corsage, was a white ribbon. Mrs. Riordan wore a lace dress in an orchid shade, which

Federation Meets At Will-O-Way

A meeting of the board of directors and the advisory board of the Michigan State Federation of Women's clubs will be held on June 27-28 at Will-O-Way.

The members, fifty of them, will come from all parts of the State. They will be entertained overnight by members of the Birmingham Women's Club. Mrs. Paul C. Grant of Winthrop Lane, is executive.

Mr. Matthew Cammarero and Mrs. L. S. Heintz will assist. Guests will have dinner at Devon Gables.

All chairmen will present their plans for the year. The slogan of the new administration, Mrs. William O. Merrill of Bloomfield Hills, president, is "Look Ahead With Youth." The watchwords of the departments of work are "Survey and Action."

On the night of June 27, the entire group will be guests in the Will-O-Way theater to see the first play of the season, "Tons of Money." The meetings will be held in the theater.
