

Nuptials Spoken In Floral Setting

White peonies, gladioli, stock and snapdragons were banded around the altar of Royal Oak's First Presbyterian church for the 8 o'clock ceremony that joined Douglas Thompson and Patsy McPhail. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Thompson, 1114 Edgewood, Royal Oak, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McPhail of Ruffin street.

For the ceremony at which Rev. Glen Schwarz officiated, the bride selected a gown of white organdy with an apron-like ruffle of organdy down either side of the full floor length skirt. It had a short sleeve bolero jacket with a Peter Pan collar which topped the strapless bodice.

She wore a bonnet-type headpiece of organdy which held her short veil. Her bouquet was of white carnations and lilies of the valley.
