Tobey Introduced at Television Meeting By H. R. Bannister

When Sen. Charles W. Tobey of New Hampshire addressed the Detroit Television council Tuesday, a local resident, Harry R. Bannister, general manager of WWJ, introduced the veteran lawmaker.

Bannister, who lives at 3216 Adams, also is a member of the board of the National Association of Television and Radio broadcasters.

The senator spoke on "Television's Role in the Fight Against Crime." Tobey became a "national TV star" during the recent Kefauver hearings.
