Amateurs Lead Open Qualifiers

On a cold day, with the heavy air making it difficult for balls to carry, sectional qualifying trials were held at Red Run and Trank Hills golf courses Monday for the National Open tournament June 14, 15 and 16 at Oakland Hills.

Four amateurs and 11 professionals won the right to compete in the Open. Two amateurs, Lloyd Mertz and Bob Bahsh, both of Red Run, led the field of 149 golfers with scores of 139 and 143.

Other qualifiers were Wally Burkenko, Franklin, 144; Eldon Briggs, Sacois, 144; Chick Harbert, Meadowbrook, 145; Smiley Quick, Los Angeles, 146; Ed Purcell, unattached, 147; Horatio Smith, Detroit, 147; Chuck Koestel, Red Run, 147.

Local Youth Held In Theft of Car

Stanley R. Jensen, 17, 454 Hawthorne, was taken to the Oakland county prosecutor's office, Wednesday morning for questioning concerning the theft of a car and two golf bags, and "caddy" cart. The theft was reported to police Thursday after Clayton Kellogg had taken his car to the Sunnec garage for servicing.

Bloomfield Hills police Tuesday night received a call that someone had been seen around the Stella Phillips home on Quaker road while Mrs. Phillips was on vacation.

They found one set of golf bags and the caddy cart hidden in the house, and following car tracks into a nearby swamp, saw the car with Jensen standing beside it. The youth ran into the swamp as officers approached. Birmingham and Bloomfield township police were called to assist in his apprehension.

Officers said he had stolen 16 license plates from another car on Quaker road, which he was using on Kellogg's car. They also reported all property recovered.
