Greek Theater Setting For Cranbrook Music Festival

The year 1938 marked the forty-first anniversary of the Greek Theater at Cranbrook, and for over three decades has been the superb setting for distinguished dramatic productions and now will be the scene of the first musical venture in which choral groups, soloists, and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra have combined to make a distinguished musical program for music enthusiasts of this area.

The first Cranbrook Music Festival will be Sunday afternoon June 10, at 4:30, in case of rain it will be held in Cranbrook auditorium. Directing the entire group of artists which will include The Detroit Chamber Music Ensemble and the choruses of the Cranbrook Festival, Olden and Christ Church Choirs, will be Dr. Maurice Garbarino. Robert E. Hayes will be guest accompanist. The guest artists will be Nora Skibeb, Contralto and Russell Skibeb, Baritone.

MEMBERS OF THE Birmingham Union of the Junior League of Detroit who will serve as ushers are: Nancy Dodd, Ed. Booth, Heidi Flannery, Mary Elizabeth Booth, Mrs. William H. Baldwin and Mrs. Phillip B. Van Dusen. Betty and Alison Brewster are assisting with the tickets. Among the charter members which number well over 400, are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gillette, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Black, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy W. Dabberger, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Gosssett, Jr. and Mrs. Neil C. McEach, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Kemp, Mr. and Mrs. Marc T. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Albert de Salle and Mr. August Mackelzbargho.

Others who have worked toward this festival are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Green, Mr. and Mrs. J. de Forest Candler, Mrs. George Koediff, Mr. and Mrs. Alan J. Goerick, Mr. and Mrs. Basil E. Brown, Miss Marion Gosdale and Mr. and Mrs. Marcel G. Camingham.

Orchard Lake C. C. Scene Of Picnic Monday, June 11

The annual picnic and welcome to new members of the Birmingham Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will be held at Orchard Lake country club Monday, June 11.

The club house will be used that day so the committees have arranged an old fashioned picnic on the lawn. Following the picnic luncheon, Mrs. C. C. Hood branch president, will present Mrs. Charlon A. Mewborn of Grosse Pointe who will talk about "Gardens of Detroit 250 Years Ago." She compares the plants in gardens in little old Detroit of that period with the plants in gardens of the big city of Detroit today.

The talk will be full of gardening information and is part of the program of the 250th anniversary celebration of Detroit. Mrs. Seth B. Slawson, social chairman, announces that Mrs. James C. Goodrup is chairman of the day. She will be assisted by Mrs. J. J. Hoza, Mrs. G. P. Hoger, Mrs. W. E. Hoiza, Mrs. A. L. Hodins, Mrs. W. S. Howell, Mrs. R. B. Hutchinson, Mrs. L. A. Hyland, Mrs. Frank Kadis and Mrs. E. E. McDonnell.

The state conference of the Michigan Division of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will be held in Ann Arbor Wednesday and Thursday June 6 and 7. A number of women from Birmingham expect to attend.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATES

A boy or girl without an education these days and in these times is like a ship without a rudder, or a plane without a pilot . . . or even like a graduate without a gift from LaBelles.

It is part of our job to know what graduates like and we do. Our trained sales staff, specialized in helping those who are buying gifts for any and all occasions, will give you invaluable assistance in picking that very special gift that can be given only once in a lifetime . . . the graduation present.

They will be proud of it for many years to come if it is chosen from our large stock of appropriate gift merchandise.

FATHER'S DAY Gifts

Make your gift to father this year, a "memorable one for him" . . . May we suggest material things such as books of fiction and travel, biographies, classics and poetry . . . and, as you know, a man's desire for leather goods never wanes. So, we suggest belts, billfolds, toilet kits, humidors, ash trays, brushes, picture frames and many other items in leather. Above all things be sure to see the picnic kits, fashioned by the American Thermos Company. They consist of two-quart containers, sandwich box, zipper case. Excellent for week-end picnics.

Special attention will be given to children desiring to make their purchases here. Everything will be wrapped as a gift.
